Rubble To Resurrection Churches Respond In The Canterbury Quakes:

Rubble to Resurrection Melissa Parsons, 2014 The Post-Earthquake City Paul Cloke, David Conradson, Eric Pawson, Harvey C. Perkins, 2023-02-15 This book critically assesses Christchurch New Zealand as an evolving post earthquake city It examines the impact of the 2010 13 Canterbury earthquake sequence employing a chronological structure to consider damage and displacement recovery and renewal and the city in transition It offers a framework for understanding the multiple experiences and realities of post earthquake recovery It details how the rebuilding of the city has occurred and examines what has arisen in the context of an unprecedented opportunity to refashion land uses and social experience from the ground up A recurring tension is observed between the desire and tendency of some to reproduce previous urban orthodoxies and the experimental efforts of others to fashion new cultures of progressive place making and attention to the more than human city The book offers several lessons for understanding disaster recovery in cities It illuminates the opportunities disasters create for both the reassertion of the familiar and the emergence of the new highlights the divergence of lived experience during recovery and considers the extent to which a post disaster city is prepared for likely climate futures The book will be valuable reading for critical disaster researchers as well as geographers sociologists urban planners and policy makers interested in disaster recovery Re-imagining Religion and Belief Baker, Christopher, Crisp, Beth R., 2018-08-29 The need to reimagine religion and belief is precipitated by their greater visibility in public life Meanwhile social policy responses often see them from a problem based rather than an asset based approach However with growing diversity of religion and belief in every sector comes the potential for new dialogues across previously impermeable policy and disciplinary silos This volume brings together leading international authors to critically consider these challenges within legal and policy frameworks including security and cohesion welfare law health and social care inequality cohesion extremism migration and abuse It challenges policy makers to re imagine religion and belief as an integral part of public life that contains resources practices forms of knowledge and experience that are essential to a coherent policy approach to diversity enhanced democracy and participation Listening and Spiritual Conversation Sue Pickering , 2017-04-26 This essential new companion from the author of the much praised Spiritual Direction will help anyone in pastoral care master an essential skill hearing and speaking from a spiritual perspective A comprehensive and practical handbook it includes Part 1 Missional Listening Holy listening to God ourselves and our communities Sharpening our awareness of God at work in our own lives Deepening our trust in the Holy Spirit Theological reflection the weaving of scripture tradition culture and experience Building relationships that empower Part 2 Spiritual Conversation Respectful engagement Spiritual needs and a Christian response Sharing our own stories and those of Jesus Costly loving Geographies of Postsecularity Paul Cloke, Christopher Baker, Callum Sutherland, Andrew Williams, 2019-01-03 This book explores the hopeful possibility that emerging geographies of postsecularity are able to contribute significantly to the understanding of how common life may be shared and how caring for the common goods of social justice well being equality solidarity and respect for difference may be imagined and practiced Drawing on recent geographic theory to recalibrate ideas of the postsecular public sphere the authors develop the case for postsecularity as a condition of being that is characterised by practices of receptive generosity rapprochement between religious and secular ethics and a hopeful re enchantment and re shaping of desire towards common life The authors highlight the contested formation of ethical subjectivity under neoliberalism and the emergence of postsecularity within this process as an ethically attuned politics which changes relations between religion and secularity and animates novel hopeful imaginations subjectivities and praxes as alternatives to neoliberal norms The spaces and subjectivities of emergent postsecularity are examined through a series of innovative case studies including food banks drug and alcohol treatment refugee humanitarian activism in Calais homeless participatory art projects community responses to the Christchurch earthquakes in New Zealand amongst others The book also traces the global conditions for postsecularity beyond the Western and predominantly Christian secular nexus of engagement This is a valuable resource for students in several academic disciplines including geography sociology politics religious studies international development and anthropology It will be of great interest to secular and faith based practitioners working in religion spirituality politics or more widely in public policy urban planning and community development
