New Federal Income Tax regulations require donors claiming deduction for contributions consisting of property other than cash worth more than cash worth more than $500 to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8283, "Noncash Charitable Contribution," where the donor lists charitable recipients, either their publicly traded securities, and/or $5000 (not including similar property contributed to one or more charitable organizations), the donor charitable organization must acknowledge the contribution on the Form 8283. In addition, donor charitable organizations are required to file Internal Revenue Service Form 8282, "Donor Information Return," when they dispose of certain property the recipient have acknowledged on a Form 8283. (See IRB Publication 5811 (Issued November 1995) "Containing the Value of Donated Property" for detailed information.)
