A detailed illustration of a modern office telephone. The phone is shown from a three-quarter perspective, highlighting its sleek design. It features a large, rectangular LCD screen at the top of the base unit, which displays several lines of text, including what appears to be a date and time, and a list of menu items. Below the screen is a numeric keypad with standard 12 buttons, plus several function keys. A coiled handset cord is attached to the left side of the phone. The background is a simple grid pattern.
