Practising The Real On The Contemporary Stage:

Practising the Real on the Contemporary Stage José A. Sánchez, 2014 An analysis of reality and the real as presented in contemporary artistic creation Practising the Real on the Contemporary Stage examines the responses given by performing arts to the importance placed on reality beyond representation This book proposes four historic itineraries defined by the ways in which the issue of the real is addressed the representation of visible reality and its paradoxes the place of the real on the lived body the limits placed on representation by experiences of pain and death and those practices that denounce the real Practising the Real on the Contemporary Stage will be warmly welcomed by scholars of aesthetics and contemporary artistic practice Spectatorship and the Real in French Contemporary Theatre Amélie

Mons, 2024-02-22 This book explores how avant garde directors in French theatre play on their audiences frustration to generate an encounter with the real Focusing on the work of directors such as Gis le Vienne Jan Lauwers Rodrigo Garcia Jan Fabre and Romeo Castellucci the book looks at how these directors manipulate their audiences to experience a raw perception of materiality and physical bodies on stage set within narratives of mystery and the uncanny This approach has led to these directors work described as obscene pretentious demagogic and provocative Because of this the act of spectating and the nature of spectatorship itself becomes complicated and tends to leave French audiences doubting traditional codes and practices It leads to the directors work being misjudged and to contradictory discourses between critics researchers and directors The book examines how directors implement strategies on stage to trigger such experiences while evaluating how problematic these strategies are It develops critical and philosophical tools that help spectators extend their field of perception and better engage with these contemporary practices And in doing so it analyses a fascinating paradox the French theatre scene hosting both active avant garde practices especially when it comes to spectator experience and strong rejections from audiences Real Theatre Paul Rae, 2019 Draws on musicals plays and experimental performances to show what theatre is made of and how we experience it The Trouble With Art Roger Sansi, Jonas Tinius, 2024-10-31 Art troubles anthropology Anthropologists have often taken a philistine sceptical position of distance towards art and aesthetics as a predominantly Western bourgeois institution But art not only as a Western institution generated its own philistine and iconoclastic revisions and undosings its anti art that have engaged anthropology into its theory and practice Anthropology is thus part of the trouble with art But trouble doesn't necessarily obfuscate it can also reveal and render visible fault lines and problems troubles can be assemblages of disparate and even contradictory parts that paradoxically do work together This volume proposes an anthropology that moves beyond philistinism and the contradictions between critical anthropologies of art and collaborative and experimental anthropologies with art Performing Citizenship in Postdictatorship Chile Jennifer Joan Thompson, 2025-06-15 Offering a nuanced understanding of the performing arts relationship to politics Through careful readings of key political performances in Chile's transition from military dictatorship to neoliberal democracy Jennifer Joan

Thompson examines how the production and aesthetics of theater are intertwined in processes of democratization enactments of citizenship and the development of cultural policy Performing Citizenship in Postdictatorship Chile Cultural Policy and the Making of Political Dramaturgies reveals how artists performed changing models of democratic citizenship Thompson traces the ways artists confronted and resisted the military dictatorship of Augusto Pinochet how they then reimagined the body politic during the early transitional period and challenged official constructions of history and memory as the transition to democracy progressed how they critiqued Chile's neoliberal economic model and its violence and finally how they have made claims for feminist and Indigenous citizen subjectivities throughout Chile's current social crisis Incorporating archival and ethnographic research alongside readings of theatrical and political performances this study offers a nuanced understanding of the performing arts relationship to politics one that accounts for the ways artists and the state collaborate in the production of the political imagination

The Bodies of Others José A.

Sánchez, 2022-02-24 Available in English for the first time The Bodies of Others investigates through a series of close readings of several theatrical and film productions in Europe and South America the relationship between representation including theatrical representation and ethics defined as an ongoing relational negotiation as opposed to a set of universal moral laws The main concepts are exposed through a comparative analysis of historical processes political actions and artistic works from different periods Thus the dialogue between the film La carroza directed by Jean Renoir 1952 and Rosa Cuchillo by Yuyachkani 2006 serves to address the problem of the multiple meanings of representation The dialogue between the play El Se or Gal ndez by Eduardo Pavlovsky 1973 the performance The Conquest of America by Las Yeguas del Apocalipsis 1989 and the novel 2666 2004 by Roberto Bola o allows the concept of an ethic of the body to be addressed Other key concepts such as identity care cruelty violence memory and testimony are considered through investigation of work such as Angelica Liddel's theatre pieces Rabih Mroue and Lina Majdalanie's performances Albertina Carri Basilio Martín Patino and Apichatpong Weerasethakul's films and Mapa Teatro's trans disciplinary creations
