The field of political science has been significantly shaped by the crises of the last decade particularly in Central and Eastern Europe The migration crisis of 2014 2015 the COVID 19 pandemic of 2020 2021 and the ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine have each posed unique challenges to nation states altering the dynamics of political institutions and actors These crises have highlighted the varying responses of European national governments from the welcoming Willkommenskultur to the construction of border fences during the migration crisis to the diverse legal frameworks adopted during the pandemic The escalation of the Russian Ukrainian conflict has further complicated these dynamics prompting different governmental responses Despite these varied approaches a common thread is the necessity for political institutions to interpret and respond to crises often requiring a departure from traditional decision making processes Current research has begun to explore these responses yet there remains a gap in understanding the full impact of these crises on inter institutional relations and the recalibration of policy making within political systems ROTC College Handbook, 1989-90
