Reporting Humanitarian Disasters in a Social Media Age Glenda Cooper, 2018-10-26 From the tsunami to Hurricane Sandy the Nepal earthquake to Syrian refugees defining images and accounts of humanitarian crises are now often created not by journalists but by ordinary citizens using Twitter Facebook YouTube Instagram and Snapchat But how has the use of this content and the way it is spread by social media altered the rituals around disaster reporting the close if not symbiotic relationship between journalists and aid agencies and the kind of crises that are covered Drawing on more than 100 in depth interviews with journalists and aid agency press officers participant observations at the Guardian BBC and Save the Children UK as well as the ordinary people who created the words and pictures that framed these disasters this book reveals how humanitarian disasters are covered in the 21st century and the potential consequences for those who posted a tweet a video or photo without ever realising how far it would go

By the Sweat and Toil of Children: Consumer labels and child labor, 1994 Children's Rights in Africa Julia Sloth-Nielsen, 2016-05-23 This collection is anchored in an African conception of children's rights and the law and reflects contemporary discourses taking place in the region of the children's rights sphere The majority of contributors are African and adopt an individual approach to their topic which reflects their first hand experience The book focuses on child rights issues which have particular resonance on the continent and the chapters span themes which are both broad and narrow containing subject matter which is both theoretical and illuminated by practice The book profiles recent developments and experiences in furthering children's legal rights in the African context and distils from these future trends the specific role that the law can play in the African children's rights environment

Making Sadza With Deaf Zimbabwean Women Kirk VanGilder, 2012-09-12 Missiological calls for self theologizing among faith communities present the field of practical theology with a challenge to develop methodological approaches that address the complexities of cross cultural practical theological research Although a variety of approaches can be considered critical correlative practical theology existing methods are often built on assumptions that limit their use in subaltern contexts Kirk VanGilder addresses these concerns by analyzing existing theological methodologies with sustained attention to a community of Deaf Zimbabwean women struggling to develop their own agency in relation to child rearing practices He explores a variety of theological approaches from practical theology mission oriented theologians theology among Deaf communities and African women s theology in relationship to the challenges presented by subaltern communities such as Deaf Zimbabwean women Rather than frame a comprehensive methodology VanGilder proposes attitudes and guideposts to reorient practical theological researchers who wish to engender self theologizing agency in subaltern communities

Budapest's Children Friederike Kind-Kovács,2022-07-05 In the aftermath of World War I international organizations descended upon the destitute children living in the rubble of Budapest and the city became a testing ground for how the West would handle the most vulnerable residents of a former enemy state Budapest s Children reconstructs how Budapest turned into a laboratory of transnational humanitarian intervention Friederike Kind Kov cs explores the ways in which migration hunger and destitution affected children s lives casting light on children s particular vulnerability in times of distress Drawing on extensive archival research Kind Kov cs reveals how Budapest s children as iconic victims of the war s aftermath were used to mobilize humanitarian sentiments and practices throughout Europe and the United States With this research Budapest s Children investigates the dynamic interplay between local Hungarian organizations international humanitarian donors and the child relief recipients In tracing transnational relief encounters Budapest s Children reveals how intertwined postwar internationalism and nationalism were and how child relief reinforced revisionist claims and global inequalities that still reverberate today

School Level Leadership in Post-conflict Societies Simon R. P. Clarke,Thomas A. O'Donoghue,2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised The observation is particularly valid in relation to post conflict societies especially when they have eventuated from new wars Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations By assembling an impressive array of international experts this book investigates a much neglected area of research Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work In particular valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by Enhancing the curriculum Energizing teaching capacity and Optimising leadership capacity Depictions of post new war environments include Angola Ghana Sri Lanka Rwanda Kenya Solomon Islands Lebanon Kosovo Timor Leste and Northern Ireland The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership comparative education and education policy Annual Report of the Chief of the Children's Bureau to the Secretary of Labor United States. Children's Bureau,1925 Report Children's Aid Society (London),1919 Financial Management for Public, Health, and Not-for-Profit Organizations Steven A. Finkler,Thad D. Calabrese,Daniel L. Smith,2022-02-07 Reflecting recent changes in accounting standards this Seventh Edition of Financial Management for Public Health and Not for Profit Organizations provides a comprehensive yet practical introduction to the financial decision making and management skills required of students and practitioners in the public health and not for profit sectors Assuming that readers have no prior training in financial management the authors artfully combine the principles theory and analytics of accounting and finance In every chapter a wide range of exercises case studies and problems help students develop strong financial assessment and judgment proficiencies while reinforcing the essential mechanics of accounting Report of Work Under the Ontario Children's Protection Act ... Ontario.
