The Last Romantic in His Own Words James A. Grymes, Veronika Kusz, 2024-12-05 The Last Romantic in His Own Words presents the selected writings and interviews of Hungarian pianist conductor and composer Ernst von Dohnányi. These texts shed new light on Dohnányi's singular aesthetics as well as on his career as a charismatic and at times controversial public figure who was one of the most influential musicians of the twentieth century particularly in Hungary. The book facilitates a much needed reevaluation of a public figure and private individual caught up in the web of twentieth century politics resulting in a picture that is more complete than ever of one of the most elusive musicians of the twentieth century.

Saving Angel Thomas Lawrason Riggs, 1944 Supernatural Beings 1 Thierry Kouam, 2019-05-24 Winnipeg is divided between two worlds one is comprised of human beings and the other of supernatural beings some of whom have been gifted with special powers and magic. Supernatural beings animals shaped like humans believe their ancestors are their gods dutifully follow the rules of their tradition and understand their purpose is to eradicate the human race. Hero is a young adult magician supernatural being who has been sent with his brothers to the world of human beings to destroy humankind. But everything changes during his important mission when Hero surprisingly feels his magic pushing him against his own desire to protect Angel a mysterious human being who appears different than others in her race. When Hero breaks the rules of his tradition and battles against his own family to protect Angel he becomes a traitor who now must learn why his magic warns him when Angel is in danger as fate leads him to places he never imagined. Holy Spirit What is the Holy Spirit The answers to these questions were so obvious in the first centuries of Christian history that the New Testament and the earliest Christian writers did not feel the need to deliberately address the identity of the Spirit The more stringent question was this what does the Spirit do in the Hebrew Scriptures in the life of Jesus in the community of disciples in the Church and in the world These same questions however did not have the same obvious answers to subsequent generations Writing in the fourth century Gregory of Nazianzus observed a slow progress of better understanding the identity and mission of the Holy Spirit throughout the centuries his opponents still referred to the Spirit as a strange unscriptural and interpolated God Or 31 One would expect that today centuries later pneumatology would be exponentially further developed than in the patristic era And yet contemporary theology only rarely asks who the Spirit is and what the Spirit does That is where the present volume attempts to bring a contribution by addressing early Pneumatologies reflected in the Scriptures and the age of the martyrs historical developments in patristic literature and spiritual writings and contemporary pneumatological themes as they relate to ecumenism ecology science ecclesiology and missions The present volume gathers essays authored by eleven world renowned theologians Each contribution originated as a public lecture addressed to theologians and an educated general audience followed by a private colloquium in which the lecturers conferred with scholars who are experts in the field Thus the present volume offers a multifaceted approach to Pneumatology in an ecumenical spirit

The Dove Descending George Westhaver, Jonathan Price, 2025-01-01 The Dove Descending brings together eminent theologians, poets, priests and thinkers to consider the immersive, irreducible vision of the Holy Spirit and His presence in Christ, the Scriptures, the Church, the Saints, the Father and the world. The collected lectures from the Pusey House Conference 2022 draw from a rich history of theological and literary figures from Augustine of Hippo to Hans Urs von Balthasar, from John Milton to T. S. Eliot whilst continually centring vigorous and incisive scriptural analysis. Crystallising around the third article of the Creed, the communion of the Holy Spirit, these articles explore the centrality of the sacraments, the necessity of yielding any possession of the spirit and the recognition of Christ in the Holy Spirit and through Him in the other. These papers, published here for the first time, are crucial reading for any academic theologian or curious Christian, illuminating the complexity in envisioning the Spirit alongside the hope for the future. His presence represents How Stage Playwrights Saved the British Cinema, 1930-1956 David Cottis, 2024-12-26 Examines the film careers and work of British playwrights who worked as screenwriters between 1930-1956. During the period between the 1927 Cinematograph Films Act and the new drama of the 1950s, many British writers associated with the stage also wrote for films, bringing the techniques of the well-made play with them. Some like Bernard Shaw, Noel Coward and Terence Rattigan were screenwriter stars; part of the publicity of the films they worked on, Pygmalion, Brief Encounter, The Way to the Stars. Others were less celebrated but had long successful screen careers, such as R. C. Sherriff, author of Journey's End, who worked on films as different as The Invisible Man, The Four Feathers and The Dam Busters. Using the author's original archives, this book follows the way in which these writers adapted their stage skills for the screen, contributing to the post-war Golden Age of the British cinema and creating the classic form of screenplay that continues today. Isaiah Translated and Explained by Joseph Addison Alexander, 1856
