a picture of human nature I own it seems to degrade it but yet my experience does not convince me that it degrades it unjustly The Maxims were first published in 1665 under the title Reflections or sentences and moral maxims and the edition of 1678 the fifth from which the text has been used for the present translation was the last revised by the author and published in his lifetime with maxims numbered 1 to 504 Maxims which appeared in previous editions and were suppressed by La Rochefoucauld can be found in the second part entitled Maxims withdrawn by the author here numbered 505 to 583 The French original of this bilingual edition was reviewed by Philippe Renaud The English translation originally by John William Willis Bund and James Hain Friswell has been thoroughly revised by Rebecca Hazell and Philippe Renaud The Defective Version of Mandeville's Travels Michael C. Seymour, 2002 Mandeville's Travels was written in French in c 1356 by an unknown author possibly a regular in an abbey in northern France This volume an edition of the earliest and most important English translation of the French text of the Travels contains a full commentary with new information about the sources
