Running In Heels A Memoir Of Grit And Grace:

Running in Heels Mary Perez, Mary A. Pe´rez, 2016-03-01 A story of coming of age and coming into grace in a new book club edition Running in Heels is an autobiography of the grit and grace that carried a girl through the shadows of her mother's choices and through an abusive marriage Mary A Perez narrates her story of survival in the face of hopelessness and forgiveness against all odds

Running in Heels Mary A. Perez, 2015-02-24 More than a memoir this book is a promise of hope for anyone who was abandoned as a child to anyone who woke up hungry and went to bed hungrier every day for every wife who has loved a husband who left bruises on her heart and on her body Somewhere between stealing cold cuts from stray cats and watching a stranger leave her mother's bed after breaking in through their bedroom window Mary figured out that her family was dirt poor Worse than her empty stomach she was hungry for acceptance and love She thought she found it when her baby sister was born and she became her mommy taking care of her needs as best she could at the age of seven Then she had to say goodbye over a small white casket Mary's grandparents first generation immigrants from Puerto Rico took her in and gave her a glimpse of faith and stability For a brief shining spell she had a real home until they decided that Mama needed her They may have been right but Mama needed more than a little girl could give and Mary lost her way again Just out of Juvy Hall Mary found a knight in shining armor to take her away She became a teenage bride to a man twice her age a man as deeply enslaved to booze as every step dad she'd had as a child She loved him anyway even wearing the bruises he gave her even when she tried to leave him to give their children a better life Despite her fear and loneliness she never imagined it would take a gunshot in the middle of the night to teach her courage She was even more surprised when rediscovered faith paved the path to forgiveness after so many years of pain Running in Heels is a memoir of the grit and grace that carried a young girl through the shadows of her mother's choices and on through an abusive marriage Mary A Perez narrates an incredible story of survival in the face of hopelessness and learning to forgive against all odds A story of coming of age and coming into grace

Díaz-Gilbert,2023-05-04 Growing up Miriam is an average athlete who doesn t get much playing time She never imagines becoming a runner But a college breakup propels her to run to mend her broken heart She begins running 5K races These races morph into half marathons and marathons Years later running helps her to cope with the workplace mistreatment she is enduring as an academic and the depression she suffers After watching Dean Karnazes and Pam Reed on 60 Minutes talk about ultrarunning Miriam signs up for the JFK 50 ultra With the love and support of her family she runs an ultramarathon every year A few years later Miriam is unable to run normally until she is diagnosed with neurological B12 deficiency and gets her running legs back Three days after placing third female in a twenty four hour ultramarathon Miriam s scheduled laparoscopic hysterectomy is only the beginning of her medical and surgical nightmare When her husband Jon is diagnosed with stage four cancer Miriam runs ultramarathons for his healing In Come What May I Want to Run the reader keeps pace with Miriam as she overcomes adversity and her unrelenting faith perseverance resiliency and running ultramarathons never waiver Running Home Katie Arnold,2019-03-12 In the tradition of Wild and H Is for Hawk an Outside magazine writer tells her story of fathers and daughters grief and renewal adventure and obsession and the power of running to change your life NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY REAL SIMPLE I m running to forget and to remember For more than a decade Katie Arnold chased adventure around the world reporting on extreme athletes who performed outlandish feats walking high lines a thousand feet off the ground without a harness or running one hundred miles through the night She wrote her stories by living them until eventually life on the thin edge of risk began to seem normal After she married Katie and her husband vowed to raise their daughters to be adventurous too in the mountains and canyons of New Mexico But when her father died of cancer she was forced to confront her own mortality His death was cataclysmic unleashing a perfect storm of grief and anxiety She and her father an enigmatic photographer for National Geographic had always been kindred spirits He introduced her to the outdoors and took her camping and on bicycle trips and down rivers and taught her to find solace and courage in the natural world And it was he who encouraged her to run her first race when she was seven years old Now nearly paralyzed by fear and terrified she was dying too she turned to the thing that had always made her feel most alive running Over the course of three tumultuous years she ran alone through the wilderness logging longer and longer distances first a 50 kilometer ultramarathon then 50 miles then 100 kilometers She ran to heal her grief to outpace her worry that she wouldn't live to raise her own daughters She ran to find strength in her weakness She ran to remember and to forget She ran to live Ultrarunning tests the limits of human endurance over seemingly inhuman distances and as she clocked miles across mesas and mountains Katie learned to tolerate pain and discomfort and face her fears of uncertainty vulnerability and even death itself As she ran she found herself peeling back the layers of her relationship with her father discovering that much of what she thought she knew about him and her own past was wrong Running Home is a memoir about the stories we tell ourselves to make sense of our world the stories that hold us back and the ones that set us free Mesmerizing transcendent and deeply exhilarating it is a book for anyone who has been knocked over by life or feels the pull of something bigger and wilder within themselves A beautiful work of searching remembrance and searing honesty Katie Arnold is as gifted on the page as she is on the trail Running Home will soon join such classics as Born to Run and Ultramarathon Man as quintessential reading of the genre Hampton Sides author of On Desperate Ground and Ghost Soldiers

Let Your Mind Run Deena Kastor, Michelle Hamilton, 2018-04-10 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Deena Kastor is one of the greatest bodies in distance running but this book captures what is so groundbreaking about her mind Alexi Pappas Olympian writer and filmmaker Inspiring fascinating and insightful Practical for anyone trying to overcome the biggest impediments to climbing that next hill of growth Shawn Achor author of The Happiness Advantage and Big Potential Deena Kastor was a star youth runner with tremendous promise yet her career almost ended after college when her competitive method run as hard as possible for fear of losing brought her to the brink of burnout On the verge of quitting she took a chance on legendary coach Joe Vigil who had started the first professional distance running team in the US At his Colorado training center she encountered the notion that shaping her mind to be more encouraging kind and resilient could make her faster than she'd ever imagined possible Building a mind so strong would take years of effort and discipline but it would propel Kastor to the pinnacle of running to American records in every distance from the 5K to the marathon and to the accomplishment of earning America's first Olympic medal in the marathon in twenty years Let Your Mind Run is a fascinating intimate look inside the mind of an elite athlete a remarkable story of achievement and an insightful primer on how the small steps of cultivating possibility can give anyone a competitive edge

Running Like a Girl Alexandra Heminsley, 2013-10-08 The inspiring hilarious memoir of a Bridget Jones like writer The Washington Post who transforms her life by learning to run with stories of miserable defeat complete victory and learning to choose the right shoes When Alexandra Heminsley decided to take up running she had hopes for a blissful runner's high and immediate physical transformation After eating three slices of toast with honey and spending ninety minutes creating the perfect playlist she hit the streets and failed spectacularly The stories of her first runs turn on its head the common notion that we are all born to run and exposes the truth about starting to run it can be brutal Running Like a Girl tells the story of getting beyond the brutal part how Alexandra makes running a part of her life and reaps the rewards not just the obvious things like weight loss health and glowing skin but self confidence and immeasurable daily pleasure along with a new closeness to her father a marathon runner and her brother with whom she ultimately runs her first marathon But before her first marathon she has to figure out the logistics of running the intimidating questions from a young and arrogant sales assistant when she goes to buy her first running shoes where to get decent bras for the larger bust how not to freeze or get sunstroke and what and when to eat before a run She s figured out what s important pockets and what isn t appearance and more For any woman who has ever run wanted to run tried to run or failed to run even if just around the block Heminsley s funny warm and motivational personal journey from nonathlete extraordinaire to someone who has completed five marathons is inspiring entertaining practical and fun

Finding Grace Donna VanLiere,2009-04-28 Finding Grace is the powerful often humorous and deeply moving story of one woman s journey of broken dreams It is the story of how a painful legacy of the past is confronted and met with peace This book is for anyone who has struggled to understand why our desires even the simplest ones are sometimes denied or who has questioned where God is when we need him most This story is about one woman s unlikely road to motherhood Finally it s a book about the undeserved gift which is life itself It s the story of Finding Grace Donna VanLiere has entertained millions with her inspirational stories In her new book she gives us a candid look into her own life a life filled with suffering and pain but one that ultimately finds peace with itself

Never Too Late Jan Abbott,2013-08 Do you have ambitions that you haven t fulfilled because the opportunity never arose you never gave them a go or simply time has passed and you now feel just too old to achieve them Jan Abbott felt exactly that as the years rolled by and her long held dream of running the London Marathon faded Enjoy the journey of this inspirational memoir as it winds through the ups and downs of everyday life and explains why a 56 year old grandmother would decide to take up marathon running It s one woman s story of grit and determination as she battles through her own trials and tribulations proving it s never too late to realise your dreams
