Critical

Issues in Environmental Taxation Lin Heng Lye, 2009 Critical Issues in Environmental Taxation is an internationally refereed publication devoted to environmental taxation issues on a worldwide basis. It seeks to provide insights and analysis for achieving environmental goals through tax policy. By sharing the perspectives of the authors in response to the diverse challenges posed by environmental taxation issues, effective approaches used in one country may be considered and possibly implemented by governmental authorities in other countries. Each volume contains pioneering and thought-provoking articles contributed by the world's leading environmental tax scholars. This seventh volume focuses on the special problems of the urban environment and the challenges which confront cities and mega cities. It examines tax issues relating to congestion and pollution control, road pricing and other forms of transportation management, housing and the construction industry, energy generation and consumption, trade, carbon taxes and new eco-service markets, research and development taxes. It contains case studies from developed as well as developing countries. Contributors come from various disciplines, particularly law, accounting and economics. The countries examined include Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Hong Kong, Japan, Kenya, Pakistan, Singapore, Spain, Uganda, and the United States.

Empowering Youth to Confront the Climate Crisis in English Language Arts Allen Webb, Richard Beach, Jeff Share, 2024-12-24 Discover how English teachers and their students confront the climate crisis using critical inquiry focusing on justice and taking action. Working in today's politically polarized environment, these teachers know first hand about teaching and learning in communities that support and resist climate education. This much-needed book describes outstanding English instruction that includes creative and analytical writing, critical place-based learning, contemporary cli-fi, young adult Indigenous and youth authored literature, Afrofuturism, critical media analysis, digital media production, and many other ways in which students can explore the crisis and have their voices heard and respected. While the focus is on high school and middle school English Language Arts, there are also relevant and inspiring elementary and college examples. This resource provides everything teachers need to help young people understand and address the climate emergency through supportive and empowering transformational learning.

Book Features: Emphasizes addressing the climate crisis as an important dimension of English language arts. Illustrates relevant and effective ways to use writing, critical inquiry, literature, media, speaking the arts, and publishing. Provides examples of students connecting local climate impacts with national and global events, critically analyzing climate denial, delay, and inaction, considering questions of justice, imagining different futures, and developing their voices and activism. Shares teaching methods, classroom stories, and student work from cities, suburbs, and rural classrooms. Examines questions of climate justice: Who causes the crisis? Who suffers? Why do governments fail to act? What is the experience of climate refugees? What type of world will young people inherit? Explains how students can take action, join with others, and become involved in solutions. Additional resources are available for each chapter at <http://climatecrisisela.pbworks.com>
