Beiner, 1993 As the poetics is based on the texts not derived by deduction or theoretical extension from some principle of poetics so it is applied as a tool of analysis to the texts and used in conjunction with evaluation The underlying assumption is that the task of poetics is instrumental and that its usefulness has to be demonstrated and verified in practice Hence the division of the book into two parts As Part I formulates a poetics on the basis of the texts so Part II applies the poetics to the major texts always within the dynamics of the multiple plot and multi layered perspective on a play Part II focuses in detail on The Merry Wives of Windsor The Merchant of Venice and Twelfth Night analyzing the agons and placing them in relation to the comedy of love and the perspective of folly Jacket The Review of Reviews ,1890 The Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1890 American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1890 The Review of Reviews William Thomas Stead, 1890 The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Patrick Cheney, Philip Hardie, 2015-10-29 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume covers the years 1558 1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading Donatist Martyr Stories Maureen A. Tilley,1996-01-01 With this volume Donatism regains its voice and its hagiography is available in English for the first time The stories included provide a unique opportunity to glimpse the daily life of the church which for over a century was the faith of the majority of North African Christians The narratives represent the lives and deaths of Christians who carried on pre Constantine traditions from the fourth century to the advent of Islam The pilot.
