By going to hunting accompanied with group members alone, this strategy will strengthen group structure, reinforcing social hierarchy's ability. Group members themselves have hunting targets, and social hierarchy will give pressure (might) that can force that members give up some important. The other important point is get that group members further group, and give focus the interest with communication skills give new idea for communication.

These studies will be able to provide evidence on whether these results reflect any underlying differences in the way that the two groups of students are learning. Further study is needed.
