contemporary time in the ancient Mediterranean This particular grouping termed a socio literary sphere is defined by the shared form content and social purpose of its constituent texts as well as certain general similarities between their texts authors Illinois Central Magazine ,1959 David Mitchell's Post-Secular World Rose Harris-Birtill,2019-01-10 Since the publication of Ghostwritten 1999 David Mitchell has rapidly established himself as one of the most inventive and important British novelists of the 21st century In this landmark study Rose Harris Birtill reveals the extent to which Mitchell has created an interconnected fictional world across the full run of his writing Covering Mitchell s complete fictions from bestselling novels such as Cloud Atlas 2004 The Bone Clocks 2014 and number9dream 2001 to his short stories and his libretti for the operas Sunken Garden and Wake this book examines how Buddhist influences inform the ethical worldview that permeates his writing Using a comparative theoretical model drawn from the Tibetan mandala to map Mitchell s fictional world Harris Birtill positions Mitchell as central to a new generation of post secular writers who re examine the vital role of belief in galvanizing action amidst contemporary ecological political and humanitarian crises David Mitchell s Post Secular World features two substantial new interviews with the author a chronology of his fictions and a selected bibliography of important critical writings on his work A Social History of Christian Origins Simon J. London Review of Books Jane Hindle,1996 Erudite witty and often controversial The London Review of Books informs and entertains its readers with a fortnightly dose of the best and liveliest of all things cultural This anthology brings together some of the most memorable pieces from recent years includes Alan Bennett s Diary Christopher Hitchens on Bill Clinton s presidency Terry Castle s hotly debated reading of Jane Austen s letters Jerry Fodor taking issue with Richard Dawkins on evolution Victor Kiernan on treason Jenny Diski musing on death Stephen Frears adventures in Hollywood Linda Colley on Nancy Reagan Frank Kermode on Paul de Man and much much more Rhetoric and Theology William M. Wright,2009-12-15 This monograph on John 9 makes extensive use of premodern Christian exegesis as a resource for New Testament studies The study reframes the existing critique of the two level reading of John 9 as allegory in terms of premodern exegetical practices It offers a hermeneutical critique of the two level reading strategy as a kind of figural exegesis rather than historical reconstruction through an extensive comparison with Augustine s interpretation of John 9 A review of several premodern Christian readings of John 9 suggests an alternative way of understanding this account in terms of Greco Roman rhetoric John 9 resembles the rhetorical argumentation associated with chreia elaboration and the complete argument to display Jesus identity as the Light of the World This analysis illustrates the inseparability of form and content rhetoric and theology in the Fourth Gospel Currents in the Interpretation of Paul Neil Elliott,2024-09-05 The apostle Paul has long been championed or criticized as a Christian thinker as a brilliant theological genius or an enthusiastic convert who spun arguments to justify his new allegiances In these essays Neil Elliott engages some of the most provocative currents in contemporary scholarship including Paul and the nature of violence the presumptions of religious cultural or national innocence in particular interpretations of the apostle the recent enthusiasm for Paul in some streams of Marxist thought competing construals of economic realities in Paul s day and our own and questions surrounding Paul s legacy today

Reading Paul in Context: Explorations in Identity Formation Kathy Ehrensperger,J. Brian Tucker,2010-09-30 This new collection celebrates the distinguished contribution of William S Campbell to a renewed understanding of Paul s theologizing and its influence on the shaping of early Christian identity The essays are clustered around two closely related topics Paul s theologizing and the way it influenced Christian identity within the context of Roman Empire The essays consider the continued relevance of previous identities in Christ the importance of the context of the Roman Empire and the significance of the Jewishness of Paul and the Pauline movement in the shaping of identity The political context is discussed by Neil Elliott Ekkehard Stegemann Daniel Patte and Ian Rock whilst the Jewish roots of Paul and the Christ movement are addressed in essays by Robert Jewett Mark Nanos Calvin Roetzel and Kathy Ehrensperger Paul s specific influence in shaping the identity of the early Christ movement is the concern of essays by Robert Brawley Jerry Sumney Kar Yong Lim and J Brian Tucker Finally methodological reflection on Paul s theologizing within Pauline studies is the concern of essays by Terrence Donaldson and Magnus Zetterholm The Birth and Death of the PreMarkan Passion Narrative Brandon Massey ,2024-07-26 The existence of a source behind the Markan passion narrative was considered one of the assured results of twentieth century scholarship Brandon Massey traces the origins and assumptions underlying the existence of this source and shows that it cannot be sustained outside of a form critical paradigm The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger,2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell s Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell s novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell s novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author s strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines Power and Peril Michael K.W. Suh,2020-03-09 This study probes the significance of Paul s statement in 1 Corinthians 3 16 announced to a group of believers in Corinth Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the spirit of God dwells among you The question is framed in the Greek language such that Paul expected an affirmative response i e Yes we know we are the temple of God and yet mapping such an idea onto a gathering of people is rather unprecedented in antiquity By surveying relevant literary texts and material culture from the ancient Mediterranean roughly 400 BCE 200 CE the author shows how Paul appropriated the concept of temple in his exhortation to the Corinthians A few key texts in 1 Corinthians can be read as a cohesive and coherent set of passages that unpack the idea of the Corinthians as the temple of God While these passages are not typically read together this study shows how themes such as power and spirit traditions from Exodus divine benefits and sacrificial foods found in these passages reflect similar concerns observed in temples and other sanctuaries in ancient Greek Roman and Jewish contexts Careful analysis of the religious experience of visitors to temples an important topic that remains largely ignored in secondary literature gives greater clarity to the nuances of Paul s temple discourse As the temple the Corinthian community not only receives God s power and benefits but also remains vulnerable to peril posed by insiders and outsiders Paul and Participation in Christ Mark J. Goodwin,2020-11-09 Since the 1970s and E P Sanders Paul and Palestinian Judaism Pauline scholars have become increasingly aware of the significance of participation formerly Pauline mysticism in Paul s letters In them he employed a diversity of participatory expressions e g speaking of believers being in Christ baptized into Christ being crucified with Christ etc While Paul makes frequent references to participation he never explained what it was thus leaving modern interpreters with an enigma and an impasse This book seeks to redress this neglected question of Pauline participation through an examination of the Greek speaking eastern Fathers a suggestion of scholar Richard Hays To this end this book explores four select patristic texts from Irenaeus Origen Athanasius and Cyril of Alexandria paying close attention to how each may shed potential new light on the enigma Pauline participation Taking Law Seriously James Goudkamp,Mark Lunney,Leighton McDonald,2022-01-27 This book celebrates the scholarship of Peter Cane The significance and scale of his contributions to the discipline of law over the last half century cannot be overstated In an era of increasing specialisation Cane stands out on account of the unusually broad scope of his interests which extend to both private and public law in equal measure This substantive breadth is combined with remarkable doctrinal historical comparative and theoretical depth This book is written by admirers of Cane s work and the essays probe a wide range of issues especially in administrative law and tort law Consistently with the international prominence that Cane s research has enjoyed the contributors are drawn from across the common law world The volume will be of value to anyone who is interested in Cane s towering contributions to legal scholarship and administrative law and tort law more generally The Law of Contract 1670–1870 Warren Swain,2015-02-12 This book considers the development of contract law doctrine in England from 1670 to 1870
