Component	1. Failing	2. Needs Improvement	3. Proficient	4. Distinguished
3a: Communicating with students	Expectations for learning, directions and procedures, and explanations of content are unclear or confusing to students. Teacher's use of language contains errors or is inappropriate to students' cultures or levels of development.	Expectations for learning, directions and procedures, and explanations of content are clarified after initial confusion ; teacher's use of language is correct but may not be completely appropriate to students' cultures or levels of development .	Expectations for learning, directions and procedures, and explanations of content are clear to students . Communications are appropriate to students' cultures and levels of development.	Expectations for learning, directions and procedures, and explanations of content are clear to students. Teacher's oral and written communication is clear and expressive, appropriate to students' cultures and levels of development, and anticipates possible student misconceptions.
3b: Using questioning and discussion techniques	Teacher's questions are low-level or inappropriate, eliciting limited student participation , and recitation rather than discussion.	Some of the teacher's questions elicit a thoughtful response, but most are low-level, posed in rapid succession . Teacher's attempts to engage all students in the discussions are only partially successful.	Most of the teacher's questions elicit a thoughtful response , and the teacher allows sufficient time for students to answer. The students are engaged and participate in the discussion, with the teacher stepping aside when appropriate.	Questions reflect high expectations and are culturally and developmentally appropriate . Students formulate many of the high-level questions and ensure that all voices are heard .
