Simple Charity Donation Letter

November 25, 2050

Anthony Baldwin

4152 Upton Avenue,

Grand Isle, ME 04746

Dear Mr. Baldwin,

We hope this letter finds you in the best of health and spirits. We write to you on behalf of [Your Company Name], a non-profit organization devoted to improving the lives of those less fortunate in society. Our latest project is yet another step towards our mission to ensure a better future for those in need.

We are planning to build a learning resource center in one of the most underserved areas of our community. This facility will provide free education and skill development opportunities to thousands of children and young adults who currently have limited access to these essential resources. To make this project a success, we strive to raise $500,000 by December 2050.

Your generous donation can light up the lives of so many people who are anxiously waiting for someone to extend a hand of help. Be it a single dollar or a larger amount, each donation is a step forward in our mission. We are grateful for your consideration of our request, and we anticipate hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Beyond the Pulpit Lisa J. Shaver, 2012-01-22 In the formative years of the Methodist Church in the United States women played significant roles as proselytizers organizers lay ministers and majority members Although women s participation helped the church to become the nation s largest denomination by the mid nineteenth century their official roles diminished during that time In Beyond the Pulpit Lisa Shaver examines Methodist periodicals as a rhetorical space to which women turned to find and make self meaning In 1818 Methodist Magazine first published memoirs that eulogized women as powerful witnesses for their faith on their deathbeds As Shaver observes it was only in death that a woman could achieve the status of minister Another Methodist publication the Christian Advocate was America s largest circulated weekly by the mid 1830s It featured the Ladies Department a column that reinforced the canon of women as dutiful wives mothers and household managers Here the church also affirmed women in the important rhetorical and evangelical role of domestic preacher Outside the Ladies Department women increasingly appeared in little narratives in which they were portrayed as models of piety and charity benefactors organizers Sunday school administrators and teachers missionaries and ministers assistants These texts cast women into nondomestic roles that were institutionally sanctioned and widely disseminated By 1841 the Ladies Repository and Gatherings of the West was engaging women in discussions of religion politics education science and a variety of intellectual debates As Shaver posits by providing a forum for women writers and readers the church gave them an official rhetorical space and the license to define their own roles and spheres of influence As such the periodicals of the Methodist church became an important public venue in which women's voices were heard and their identities explored The Connecticut Evangelical Magazine; and Religious Intelligencer ... ,1811 Charitable Giving Techniques ,2001

Flight ,1926      Techniques of Social Influence Dariusz Dolinski,2015-07-03 Every day we are asked to fulfil others requests and we make regular requests of others too seeking compliance with our desires commands and suggestions This accessible text provides a uniquely in depth overview of the different social influence techniques people use in order to improve the chances of their requests being fulfilled It both describes each of the techniques in question and explores the research behind them considering questions such as How do we know that they work Under what conditions are they more or less likely to be effective How might individuals successfully resist attempts by others to influence them The book groups social influence techniques according to a common characteristic for instance early chapters describe sequential techniques and techniques involving egotistic mechanisms such as using the name of one s interlocutor Later chapters present techniques based on gestures and facial movements and others based on the use of specific words re examining on the way whether please really is a magic word In every case author Dariusz Dolinski discusses the existing experimental studies exploring their effectiveness and how that effectiveness is enhanced or reduced under certain conditions The book draws on historical material as well as the most up to date research and unpicks the methodological and theoretical controversies involved The ideal introduction for psychology graduates and undergraduates studying social influence and persuasion Techniques of Social Influence will also appeal to scholars and students in neighbouring disciplines as well as interested marketing professionals and practitioners in related fields

Chinese Diaspora Charity and the Cantonese Pacific, 1850-1949 John Fitzgerald,Hon-ming Yip,2020-04-15 Chinese Diaspora Charity and the Cantonese Pacific 1850 1949 sheds new light on the history of charity among Chinese overseas and its place in the history of charity in China and in the wider history of global philanthropy It finds that diaspora charity besides serving traditional functions of helping the sick and destitute and supporting development in China helped to build trust among dispersed hometown networks while challenging color boundaries in host societies by contributing to wider social causes The book shows that charitable activities among the Gold Rush communities of the Pacific rim a loosely integrated migr network from Guangdong Province perhaps better known for its business acumen and hard work among English speaking settler societies in North America and Australasia also led the way with social innovations that helped to shape modern charity in China Fitzgerald and Yip s volume demonstrates that charity lay at the heart of community life among Chinese communities overseas From remittances accompanying letters to contributions to benevolent organizations emigrants transferred funds in many different ways to meet urgent requirements such as disaster relief while also contributing to long term initiatives like building schools or hospitals By drawing attention to diaspora contributions to their host societies the contributors correct a common misunderstanding of the historical Chinese diaspora which is often perceived by host communities as self interested or disengaged This important study also reappraises the value of charitable donations in the maintenance of networks an essential feature of diaspora life across the Cantonese Pacific Fitzgerald and Yip s fascinating collection is a major contribution to the growing study of charity and its relationship to social welfare The essays show how remittances were used for much more than family support The book fills a large gap on the almost unrecognized importance of charity among Cantonese communities in the Chinese diaspora Diana Lary University of British Columbia This collection is a great contribution to our understanding of how important charity became among overseas Chinese in the early stages of the diaspora between 1850 and 1949 Philanthropy was crucial in the creation of trust networks among the diasporic communities that earned Chinese recognition to the overseas communities both in China and in their host countries Sue Fawn Chung University of Nevada Las Vegas

Argumentation Raymond S. Nickerson, 2020-12-17 Drawing from the study of human reasoning Argumentation describes different types of arguments and explains how they influence beliefs and behaviour Raymond Nickerson identifies many of the fallacies biases and other flaws often found in arguments as well as stratagems schemes illogical and alogical tactics that people regularly use to persuade others Much attention is given to the evaluation of arguments Readers will learn a new schematic for evaluating arguments based on cognitive science As a source for understanding and evaluating arguments in decision making it is ideal for courses on cognition reasoning and psychology
