The Focus on the Family Women's Ministry Guide (Focus on the Family Women's Series) Focus on the Family, 2004-08-19
Now You Can Lead the Women in Your Church on a Journey of Fellowship and Fun In America today Christian churches are held together through the prayer and service of women yet many of these women are overwhelmed and in need of a break so that they can reconnect with the Lord That s why Focus on the Family has combined the best features of women s ministries and created these new resources to give women of all ages a chance to get together for quality time with each other and with God The essential principles in this guide were specially selected to help you lead a ministry that comprises women from different generations and backgrounds Even if you ve never led a group before you can successfully start run and grow a women s ministry with the step by step guidelines in this manual Help the women in your church join together for a journey of laughter and growth in Christ

Women in the Greetings of Romans 16.1-16 Susan Mathew, 2013-02-28 Susan Mathew examines the structures of mutuality in Romans to shed light on the issue of women s leadership in Pauline theology Mathew begins by analyzing the general form of greetings in the Pauline letters to shed light on the specific form of the greetings in Rom 16 1 16 Mathew then couples this with analysis of the leadership of women in the Greco Roman world showing that women s leadership roles in the Pauline churches were part of this wider culture This provides a basis from which to show that the women named in Romans 16 1 16 display Paul s acknowledgment of some women associates and point to relationships of mutuality in the greetings A study of Romans 12 13 helps to apprehend the model of mutuality exemplified in the greetings Finally the contextual application of mutuality in the community as mutual welcoming and mutual up building Romans 14 15 is brought into focus This enables Mathew to draw together the strands of the Pauline ethos of mutuality which encourages the leadership roles of women in the greetings at the end of Romans

Women in the Ministry of Jesus Ben Witherington, 1987-10-22 Women in the Ministry of Jesus is a study of both of Jesus' attitudes towards women as reflected in his words and deeds and of the women who were part of his ministry or who interacted with him according to the Gospel accounts. The book seeks to provide a balanced analysis of the relevant Biblical material and also the historical background necessary to illuminate the setting of the Gospel events. Particular attention is given to related issues such as Jesus' views on marriage, the family and the single life as well as his teaching on adultery, the laws of the clean and unclean and the sabbath. Witherington concludes that Jesus cannot be categorized neatly either as chauvinist or as feminist.

Women's Words, Women's Stories Lois S. Edgerly, 1995-08 The comprehensive approach Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2010-03-18 The Defence Committee report recommends that when troops are committed to operations in future, there must be robust plans to coordinate military and reconstruction efforts from the earliest stages. The next Government should lay out the requirements of the Comprehensive Approach, the combination of civilian and military actors in a counter-insurgency operation in order better to preserve all the lessons learned in the complex operations of Iraq and Afghanistan, many of them having been painfully re-learned from Bosnia, Kosovo and even Malaya. The Committee looks to the recently formed Stabilisation Unit, owned by the Department for International Development, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Ministry of Defence, to maintain a capacity to deploy significant numbers of personnel for post-conflict reconstruction and to ensure that vital knowledge and skills gained during deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan are retained and built on. The Comprehensive Approach requires close work with local nationals to build up their capability and confidence in all fields, including security, governance, law and order, and
