traditional challenges Hasidism presents to the traditional Jewish world Piety and Rebellion is an attempt to present Hasidism as one case whereby maximalist religion can yield a rebellious challenge to conventional conceptions of religious thought and practice      Stars, Cards, and Stones Kooch N. Daniels,2024-12-17 Discover the foundations of astrology Tarot and runes how these systems correspond to one another and how to use them in combination for enhanced insight With Stars Cards and Stones Learn the basic features of three major divination systems astrology Tarot and runestones Discover the symbolic correspondences among these systems and unearth new layers of meaning in each Explore divination techniques that you can apply to multiple systems Understand how these systems can be used in combination to gain new levels of understanding and greater insight The fascinating worlds of divination and their symbolic correspondences are yours to explore Stars Cards and Stones is a perfect resource for beginners who want to know more about these systems and for experienced readers seeking exciting new possibilities for their divination practice      Scents of China Xuelei Huang,2023-08-10 In this vivid and highly original reading of recent Chinese history Xuelei Huang documents the eclectic array of smells that permeated Chinese life from the High Qing through to the Mao period Utilising interdisciplinary methodology and critically engaging with scholarship in the expanding fields of sensory and smell studies she shows how this period of tumultuous change in China was experienced through the body and the senses Drawing on unexplored archival materials readers are introduced to the smellscape of China from the eighteenth to mid twentieth century via perfumes food body odours public health projects consumerism and cosmetics travel literature fiction and political language This pioneering and evocative study takes the reader on a sensory journey through modern Chinese history examining the ways in which the experience of scent and modernity have intertwined      American Shaolin Matthew Polly,2007 Laced with humor and illuminated by cultural insight this coming of age tale explores one young American s quest to become a kung fu master at China s legendary Shaolin Temple 8 page photo insert      Revolutionary Stagecraft Tarryn Li-Min Chun,2024-06-04 Revolutionary Stagecraft draws on a rich corpus of literary historical and technical materials to reveal a deep entanglement among technological modernization political agendas and the performing arts in modern China This unique approach to Chinese theater history combines a close look at plays themselves performance practices technical theater details and behind the scenes debates over how to make theater amid the political upheavals of China s 20th century The book begins at a pivotal moment in the 1920s when Chinese theater artists began to import use and write about modern stage equipment and ends in the 1980s when China s scientific and technological boom began By examining iconic plays and performances from the perspective of the stage technologies involved Tarryn Li Min Chun provides a fresh perspective on their composition and staging The chapters include stories on the challenges of creating imitation neon rigging up a makeshift revolving stage and representing a nuclear bomb detonating onstage In thinking about theater through technicity the author mines well studied materials such as dramatic texts and performance reviews for hidden technical details and brings to light a number of previously untapped sources such as technical journals and manuals set design renderings lighting plots and prop schematics and stage technology how to guides for amateur thespians This approach focuses on material stage technologies situating these objects equally in relation to their technical potential their human use and the social political economic and cultural forces that influence them In each of its case studies Revolutionary Stagecraft reveals the complex and at times surprising ways in which Chinese theater artists and technicians of the 20th century envisioned and enacted their own revolutions through the materiality of the theater apparatus

Staging and Performing Translation R. Baines, C. Marinetti, M. Perteghella, 2016-02-02 This exploration of the territory between theory and practice in contemporary theatre features essays by academics from theatre and translation studies and delineates a new space for the discussion of translation in the theatre that is international critical and scholarly while rooted in experience and understanding of theatre practices Searching for My Shangri La John Staniland, 2024-01-15 Searching for My Shangri La is the author's second of book on the region after Midlife Meanderings in SE Asia It is about continuing an independent and unstructured journey through this fascinating part of the world on a shoe string budget Largely using public transport the author travelled from southern Thailand to Malaysia to explore the islands of Langkawi and Penang A boat then took him across the Straits of Malacca to Medan the capital of Indonesia which is to the north of the large island state of Sumatra After an exhilarating and often uncomfortable journey southwards he found himself opposite Singapore and needed to take a ferry across to this city state to continue his journey by air to Hong Kong After a thorough exploration of this former British Colonial outpost a fast ferry took him on to Macau A couple of days are then spent in this exhilarating former Portuguese colony preparing to explore southwest China and a comprehensive voyage of discovery of the Yunnan Province to the edge of the Himalayas Returning to Thailand meant undertaking a bizarre journey down the Mekong flanked by Burma and Laos Once reacquainted with northern Thailand there were a few days before it was time to head to Bangkok for the flight back to the UK Official Gazette of the United States

Translation Nicole Mones, 2007-12-18 A novel of searing intelligence and startling originality Lost in Translation heralds the debut of a unique new voice on the literary landscape Nicole Mones creates an unforgettable story of love and desire of family ties and human conflict and of one woman's struggle to lose herself in a foreign land only to discover her home her heart herself At dawn in Beijing Alice Mannegan pedals a bicycle through the deserted streets An American by birth a translator by profession she spends her nights in Beijing's smoke filled bars and the Chinese men she so desires never misunderstand her intentions All around her rushes the air of China the scent of history and change of a world where she has come to escape her father's love and her own pain It is a world in which each night as she slips from her hotel she hopes to lose herself forever For Alice it began with a phone call from an American archaeologist seeking a translator And it ended in an intoxicating journey of the heart one that would plunge her into a nation's past and into some of the most rarely glimpsed regions of China Hired by an archaeologist searching for the bones of Peking Man Alice joins an expedition that penetrates a vast uncharted land and brings Professor Lin Shiyang into her life As they draw closer to unearthing the secret of Peking Man as the group's every move is followed their every whisper recorded Alice and Lin find shelter in each other slowly putting to rest the ghosts of their pasts What happens between them becomes one of the most breathtakingly erotic love stories in recent fiction Indeed Lost in Translation is a novel about love between a nation and its past between a man and a memory between a father and a daughter Its powerful impact confirms the extraordinary gifts of a master storyteller Nicole Mones

Being and Neonness, Translation and content revised, augmented, and updated for this edition by Luis de Miranda Luis De Miranda, 2019-04-16 A cultural and philosophical history of neon from Paris in the twentieth century to the perpetually switched on present day For most of us the word neon conjures images of lights colors nightlife and streets It evokes the poetry of city nights For Luis de Miranda neon is a subject of philosophical curiosity Being and Neonness is a cultural and philosophical history of neon from early twentieth century Paris to the electric perpetually switched on present day Manhattan It is an inspired journey through a century of night deciphering the halos of the past and the reflections of the present to shed light on the future Invented in Paris in 1912 neon first appeared on a modest but arresting sign outside a small barbershop the sign lit up number 14 Boulevard Montmartre attracting so many passersby that the barber's revenues soon doubled A century later neon is no longer just a sign it is a mythic object a metonymy of contemporary identity and a metaphor for the present signifying the ubiquity of commerce and the tautology of hypermodernity But perhaps the noble gas of neon whispers something more something deeper In ten short poetic yet precise chapters de Miranda explores the neon lights of the twentieth century He considers among other historical curiosities the neon compulsions of the Italian Futurists the Soviet program of neonization the Nazi's deployment of neon for propaganda purposes Baudelaire's halo and Benjamin's aura neon as a gas and crystallized chaos neon and power neon and capitalism all of this backlit by an original reading of Sartre's Being and Nothingness This English edition has been thoroughly revised and adapted from the French edition L'ère du néon

Whither Class? Xueping Zhong, 2025-02-24 This book argues that the revolutionary anti-revolutionary counter-revolutionary and post-revolutionary dialectics in modern Chinese history since the early 20th century characterizes modern and contemporary Chinese literature the most Central to these dialectics are issues of class The book contends that one cannot fully understand modern and contemporary Chinese literature without understanding the class character of Chinese revolutionary and counter-revolutionary struggles including literary practices and their various contradictions Considering literature via the notion of the event and focusing on three specific historical junctures this project explores how as a major cultural form literature has played an outsize role in China's struggle for liberation and quest for modernity It highlights the need to understand class and the extent to which it shapes literary and artistic forms and expressions as well as the on going debates over the relationship between politics and aesthetics Routledge Library Editions: Tourism
