Facing Black Star Thierry Gervais, Vincent Lavoie, 2023-06-13 The Black Star Collection at The Image Centre the expectations challenges and results of a decade of research in a key photo agency s print collection In 2005 Toronto Metropolitan formerly Ryerson University TMU acquired the massive collection Black Star Collection of the photo agency previously based in New York City nearly 292 000 black and white prints Preserved at The Image Centre at TMU the images include iconic stills of the American Civil Rights movement by Charles Moore among

thousands of ordinary photographs that were classified by theme in the agency's picture library. While the move of the collection from a corporate photo agency to a public cultural institution enables more access, researchers must still face the size of the collection, its structural organization, the materiality of the prints, and the lack of ephemera. Facing Black Star aims to fruitfully highlight this tension between research expectations and challenges. Coeditors Thierry Gervais and Vincent Lavoie have gathered local, national, and international researchers ranging from graduate students to established scholars and curators to illuminate the staggering range of the collection, from its disquieting record of the Nazis' rise to power to its visual archive of climate change. Each contribution highlights methodological, epistemological, and political issues inherent to conducting research in photographic archives and collections, such as indexing protocols and their impact on research, the photographic archive as a place of visibility and invisibility, and the photographic archive as a hermeneutic tool. Shedding new light on current issues in the theory and history of photography, this impressive volume, containing 100 images, will not only discuss the subjects portrayed in the photographs but will also address the history of photojournalism, the role of such a photographic archive in our Western societies, and ultimately photography as a medium. Like the other volumes of the RIC Books series, MIT Press/The Image Centre (formerly the Ryerson Image Centre), this publication will appeal as much to academics of visual history as it will to photography enthusiasts in general.

The Great Juristic Bazaar William Twining, 2017-09-08 Some law students find jurisprudence daunting, impersonal, dry, and seemingly detached from practical affairs. William Twining believes that many jurists have been fascinating people struggling with questions that are both historically significant and relevant to contemporary issues This book brings together previously published essays that centre on three related themes reading Juristic texts the role of narrative in law and relations between theory and practice Building on a pragmatic view of jurisprudence the author explores different ways of reading and using Juristic texts to set them in context to bring them to life and to engage with the reader s own concerns He applies this approach to throw fresh light on four familiar figures Holmes Bentham Hart and Llewellyn Challenging limited agendas and parochial points of view Twining outlines a programme for a broad approach to legal theory in the context of globalization He satirizes some bad habits in jurisprudence and explores in depth how stories can be seductive vehicles for cheating in legal contexts yet are essential for making sense of disputes about fact or law
