Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community Anthony H. Goodman, 2012-05-25

Rehabilitating and Resettling Offenders in the Community is a significant examination of the historical development of work with offenders and their treatment by the state and society It offers unique perspectives and a wealth of information drawn from numerous interviews with probation staff Highlights how the work of probation staff has changed over time and the reasons behind these changes Includes discourse with probation staff carried out over many years for a comprehensive insiders view of the situation Focuses on contemporary issues including the changes brought in by the Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition Written by a leading academic with extensive experience in the probation service

Water Resource Economics, second edition Ronald C. Griffin, 2016-03-11 Updated edition of a comprehensive introduction to the economics of water management with self contained treatment of all necessary economic concepts Economics brings powerful insights to water management but most water professionals receive limited training in it The second edition of this text offers a comprehensive development of water resource economics that is accessible to engineers and natural scientists as well as to economists The goal is to build a practical platform for understanding and performing economic analysis using both theoretical and empirical tools Familiarity with microeconomics or natural resource economics is helpful but all the economics needed is presented and developed progressively in the text The book focuses on the scarcity of water quantity rather than on water quality The author presents the economic theory of resource allocation recognizing the peculiarities imposed by water and then goes on to treat a range of subjects including conservation groundwater depletion water law policy analysis cost benefit analysis water marketing privatization and demand and supply estimation Added features of this updated edition include a new chapter on water scarcity risk with climate change and necessary risk tools introduced progressively and new risk attentive material elsewhere in the text sharper treatment of block rates and pricing doctrine expanded attention to contemporary literature and issues and new appendixes on input output analysis water footprinting and virtual water and cost allocation Each chapter ends with a summary and exercises

Plato's Pigs and Other Ruminations M. D. Usher, 2020-10-15 The Greeks and Romans have been charged with destroying the ecosystems within which they lived In this book however M D Usher argues rather that we can find in their lives and thought the origin of modern ideas about systems and sustainability important topics for humans today and in the future With chapters running the gamut of Greek and Roman experience from the Presocratics and Plato to Roman agronomy and the Benedictine Rule Plato's Pigs brings together unlikely bedfellows both ancient and modern to reveal surprising connections Lively prose and liberal use of anecdotal detail including an afterword about the author's own experiments with sustainable living on his sheep farm in Vermont add a strong authorial voice In short this is a unique first of its kind book that is sure to be of interest to anyone working in Classics environmental studies philosophy ecology or the history of ideas

Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture Alison Donnell, 2002-09-11 The Companion to Contemporary Black British Culture is the first comprehensive reference book to provide multidisciplinary coverage of the field of black cultural production in Britain The publication is of particular value because despite attracting growing academic interest in recent years this field is still often subject to critical and institutional neglect For the purpose of the Companion the term black is used to signify African Caribbean and South Asian ethnicities while at the same time addressing the debates concerning notions of black Britishness and cultural identity This single volume Companion covers seven intersecting areas of black British cultural production since 1970 writing music visual and plastic arts performance works film and cinema fashion and design and intellectual life With entries on distinguished practitioners key intellectuals seminal organizations and concepts as well as popular cultural forms and local activities the Companion is packed with information and suggestions for further reading as well as offering a wide lens on the events and issues that have shaped the cultural interactions and productions of black Britain over the last thirty years With a range of specialist advisors and contributors this work promises to be an invaluable sourcebook for students researchers and academics interested in exploring the diverse complex and exciting field of black cultural forms in postcolonial Britain
