Ryerson Journalism Application Deadline:

This Team Is Ruining My Life (But I Love Them) Steve "Dangle" Glynn, 2019-03-19 Steve Dangle's incredible odyssey from self-starting Leafs lover to sports media star. How do you turn ranting about hockey into a career? Steve Dangle Glynn is a YouTuber, podcaster, and sports personality from Toronto who managed to turn a 16-second online rant about the Maple Leafs into a career in sports media. From video blogging in his parents' house at 19 to yelling on televisions across Canada at 28, Dangle has been involved with some of the most important sports companies in the country. In between tales of Steve's adventures both online and off, This Team Is Ruining My Life is also a kind of how-to or how-not-to guide in an ever-evolving media landscape. Sometimes you have to get creative to find the job you want. This is Steve Dangle and his accidentally on purpose journey through sports media so far.

The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society Debra L. Merskin, 2019-11-12 The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Mass Media and Society discusses media around the world in their varied forms: newspapers, magazines, radio, television, film, books, music, websites, social media, mobile media, and describes the role of each in both mirroring and shaping society. This encyclopedia provides a thorough overview of media within social and cultural contexts, exploring the development of the mediated communication industry, mediated communication regulations, and societal interactions and effects. This reference work will look at issues such as free expression and government regulation of media, how people choose what media to watch, listen to, and read, and how the influence of those who control media organizations may be changing as new media empower previously unheard voices. The role of media in society will be explored from international, multidisciplinary perspectives via approximately 700 articles drawing on research from communication and media studies, sociology, anthropology, social psychology, politics, and business.

late twentieth century      The Thematic Evolution of Sports Journalism's Narrative of Mental Illness Ronald Bishop, 2023-03-24 In The Thematic Evolution of Sports Journalism's Narrative of Mental Illness A Little Less Conversation Ronald Bishop contends that the conversation developed and sustained by sports journalists about professional athletes' experience with mental illness has evolved through three slightly overlapping stages each marked by a primary theme During the first stage from the end of the 19th Century to the middle of the 20th century sports journalists sensationalized the experience and portrayed the athletes breathlessly labeled insane as tragic figures During the roughly two decade second stage an athlete's experience with mental illness was portrayed as an inconvenience that flummoxed and infuriated team officials who had neither the ability nor the inclination to address the issue The final stage leading up to present day and beyond is most notable for the development and widespread adoption of a coverage template that centers around an athlete's brave decision to reveal and discuss their experiences Combining historical research and narrative analysis Bishop interrogates whether sports journalists have finally begun to cover the experience of mental illness with sufficient depth Scholars of media studies journalism celebrity studies and sports psychology will find this book of particular interest
