also in a mysterious when Time and space have seemingly disappeared and communication with the outside world is nonexistent Rich his family and over two hundred other passengers must work together to find a way to survive in a place that is neither here nor there When pistols end up in the wrong hands and resources run low death seems the likely conclusion but is death even possible in this strange land To stay alive passengers must explore unknown horizons make friends with wild natives and get along with each other in this tall tale that is part Survivor Star Trek Lost in Space and Twilight Zone

Neither Here Nor There Monica Brown, 1998 Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd, 2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature

Do I Look American? Gloria Mejia, In her book Gloria Mejia invites us to embark on a journey through history food language and the American dream exploring borders and shared humanity Each chapter begins with insights inspired by Maslow's hierarchy of needs and features reflections from diverse participants answering three key questions about what it means to be American As an immigrant she often pondered why American is primarily linked to the United States despite America being much broader Adapting to a new environment is challenging for immigrants and their descendants This book aims to inspire you to embrace your cultural identity celebrate diversity and recognize our shared humanity

Book, Text, Medium Garrett Stewart, 2021-01-28 Book Text Medium Cross Sectional Reading for a Digital Age utilizes codex history close reading and language philosophy to assess the transformative arc between medieval books and today's e books It examines what happens to the reading experience in the twenty first century when the original concept of a book is still held in the mind of a reader if no longer in the reader's hand Leading critic Garrett Stewart explores the play of mediation more generally as the concept of book moves from a manufactured object to simply the language it puts into circulation Framed by digital poetics phonorobotics and the rising popularity of audiobooks this study sheds new light on both the history of reading and the negation of legible print in conceptual book art A Library of Fathers of the Holy Catholic Church, Anterior to the Division of the East and West, 1843 Knowings and Knots Natalie Loveless, 2020-01-09 Knowings and Knots presents a range of interdisciplinary perspectives on the methodology of research creation and asks how those who make knowledge think about and value it Not just a method but a site of ongoing experimentation around what counts as knowledge research creation is a meeting place of academia artistic creation and the wider public The contributors argue that academic institutions and funders must recognize research creation as innovative knowledge making that leaps over the traditional splitting of theory from practice while considering how gender feminist studies Indigenous practices and new materialism might inform and develop the conversation Through this book readers can transform the way they experience both art and education Contributors Carolina Cambre Owen Chapman Paul Couillard T L Cowan John Cussans Randy Lee Cutler Petra Hroch Rachelle Viader Knowles Natalie Loveless Glen Lowry Erin Manning Sourayan Mookerjea Natasha Myers Simon Pope Stephanie Springgay Sarah E Truman The Homilies On The Gospel Of St. Matthew St. Chrysostom, 2012 This is the extended and annotated edition including an extensive biographical annotation about the author and his life The Homilies of St Chrysostom on St Matthew were undoubtedly delivered at Antioch see Hom vii p 43 and probably in the latter part of the time during which he preached as a Presbyter Montfaucon considers his little mention of the sin of swearing a sign of his accomplished some reformation on that point by his previous exertions In the Homilies delivered from 386 to 388 it is a constant topic and the Homilies known to belong to that date are so numerous as scarcely leave room for such a series as the present These however contain very little to mark the period to which they belong The argument from his reference to dissensions some time gone by possible those between St Meletius and Paulinus and Evagrius in commenting on St Matt xxiii 6 is not very conclusive A modern reader must sometimes be struck with finding in St Chrysostom a kind of criticism which we are apt to think belongs only to later times His main object however is moral and he searches out with diligence both the meaning and the applications of particular passages usually concluding with an eloquent exhortation to some special virtue Some of the most remarkable of these exhortations are on the subject of Alms giving which he seems to have pressed with some success at last His calculation in Hom lxvi as to what might be done is somewhat curious In the end of Hom lxxxviii he demands a reformation as the condition of his entering on the controversy with Infidels In the next Homily he discusses the evidence of the Resurrection with nearly the same arguments as would still be used against an objector Here/There Kris Paulsen, 2017-02-24 An examination of telepresence technologies through the lens of contemporary artistic experiments from early video art through current drone vision works Telepresence allows us to feel present through vision hearing and even touch at a remote location by means of real time communication technology Networked devices such as video cameras and telerobots extend our corporeal agency into distant spaces In Here There Kris Paulsen examines telepresence technologies through the lens of contemporary artistic experiments from early video art through current drone vision works Paulsen traces an arc of increasing interactivity as video screens became spaces for communication and physical tactile intervention She explores the work of artists who took up these technological tools and questioned the aesthetic social and ethical stakes of media that allow us to manipulate and affect far off environments and other people to touch metaphorically and literally those who cannot touch us back Paulsen examines 1970s video artworks by Vito Acconci and Joan Jonas live satellite performance projects by Kit Galloway and Sherrie Rabinowitz and CCTV installations by Chris Burden These early works she argues can help us make sense of the expansion of our senses by technologies that privilege real time over real space and model strategies for engagement and interaction with mediated others They establish a political aesthetic and technological history for later works using cable TV infrastructures and the World Wide Web including telerobotic works by Ken Goldberg and Wafaa Bilal and artworks about military drones by Trevor Paglen Omar Fast Hito Steyerl and others These works become a meeting place for here and there Mexicans in Alaska Sara V. Komarnisky, 2018-07-01 Mexicans in Alaska analyzes the mobility and experience of place of three generations of migrants who have been moving between Acuitzio del Canje Michoacán Mexico and Anchorage Alaska since the 1950s Based on Sara V Komarnisky's twelve months of ethnographic research at both sites and on more than ten years of engagement with the people in these locations this book reveals that over time Acuitzences have created a comprehensive sense of orientation within a transnational social field Both locations and the common experience of mobility between them are essential for feeling at home This migrant way of life requires the development of a transnational habitus as well as the skills statuses and knowledge required to live in both places Komarnisky's work presents a multigenerational and cross continental understanding of the contemporary transnational experience Mexicans in Alaska examines how Acuitzences are living working and imagining their futures across North America and suggests that anthropologists look across borders to see how broader structural conditions operate both within and across national boundaries Understanding the experiences of transnational migrants remains a critical goal of contemporary scholarship and Komarnisky's analysis of the complicated lives of three generations of migrants provides depth to the field

The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing Debbie Lisle, 2006-11-02 To what extent do best selling travel books such as those by Paul Theroux Bill Bryson Bruce Chatwin and Michael Palin tell us as much about world politics as newspaper articles policy documents and press releases Debbie Lisle argues that the formulations of genre identity geopolitics and history at work in contemporary travel writing are increasingly at odds with a cosmopolitan and multicultural world in which everybody travels Despite the forces of globalization common stereotypes about foreignness continue to shape the experience of modern travel The Global Politics of Contemporary Travel Writing is concerned with the way contemporary travelogues engage with and try to resolve familiar struggles about global politics such as the protection of human rights the promotion of democracy the management of equality within multiculturalism and the reduction of inequality This is a thoroughly interdisciplinary book that draws from international relations literary theory political theory geography anthropology and history

The Poems of T. S. Eliot, Volume I T. S. Eliot, 2018-12-04 The first volume of the first paperback edition of The Poems of T S Eliot This two volume critical edition of T S Eliot s poems establishes a new text of the Collected Poems 1909 1962 rectifying accidental omissions and errors that have crept in during the century since Eliot s astonishing debut The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock In addition to the masterpieces The Poems of T S Eliot contains the poems of Eliot s youth which were rediscovered only decades later poems that circulated privately during his lifetime and love poems from his final years written for his wife Valerie Calling upon Eliot s critical writings as well as his drafts letters and other original materials Christopher Ricks and Jim McCue have provided a commentary that illuminates the imaginative life of each poem This first volume respects Eliot s decisions by opening with his Collected Poems 1909 1962 as he arranged and issued it shortly before his death This is followed by poems uncollected but either written for or suitable for publication and by a new reading text of the drafts of The Waste Land The second volume opens with the two books of verse of other kinds that Eliot issued Old Possum s Book of Practical Cats and Anabasis his translation of St John Perse s Anabase Each of these sections is accompanied by its own commentary Finally pertaining to the entire edition there is a comprehensive textual history that contains not only variants from all known drafts and the many printings but also extended passages amounting to hundreds of lines of compelling verse
