

The background of the book cover is a painting of a laboratory. On the right, a man with a beard and glasses, wearing a dark suit, is seated at a desk, looking down at a book or document. The desk is cluttered with papers, a small lamp, and other items. In the foreground, there are various pieces of scientific equipment, including a large glass jar, a smaller jar, and some papers. The room has large windows with multiple panes, letting in light. The overall style is that of a 19th-century painting.
