One day this will all be over Ross Parsons, 2012-05-13 Ross Parsons has been working with HIV positive children in Mutare since 2005 As a child psychotherapist he was interested in exploring how a therapeutic group meeting regularly might offer a way of elaborating and meeting their needs His account of these experiences is presented as a rare blend of anthropological and psychotherapeutic approaches to the study of children and he is candid about the close even intimate relationships that resulted I have crossed the classical ethnographic and psychoanalytic boundary of the cool observer The therapist while still awkwardly present has also become an advocate in pursuit of the ethnographic The period of his research coincided with one of deep crisis in Zimbabwe's economy employment opportunities were few public health and education services were in decay and the prospects were grim for those on the margins of society In the course of my fieldwork I have attended too many funerals In the absence of state support the poor look variously to international NGOs and to the church Parsons offers telling insights into the crossroads of donated pharmaceuticals and Christian faith and is constantly alert to the place of traditional spirituality and ties of kinship

George Thomas Kurian,James D. Smith III,2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles Surprised by Healing Delores Winder,Bill Keith,2009-11-28 It was on August 30 1975 when Delores Winder attended a Methodist Conference on the Holy Spirit in Dallas Texas where Kathryn Kuhlman was speaking that the above Scripture became a reality in her life Facing death terminally ill with pseudo arthrosis and having been in a body cast for over fourteen years Delores was only seeking to receive something from God that she could leave with her young son Chris when she died She received the answer that night in Dallas as she felt the very presence of the living God surrounding her Never having seen a miraculous healing take place and believing that supernatural healing ended with the apostles Delores was not praying for a physical miracle However we have a God that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think and she was transformed from hopelessness to wholeness set free from the disease that had her bound God is no respecter of persons and what He did for Delores He will do for you Always remember joy comes in the morning for regardless of any need you may be facing God is with you and there is nothing impossible with Him Holy Words David P. Rebeck,1997-10 The meaning and significance of the Christian faith are diminished when its key words are not understood Christians have a special vocabulary of holy words but often have difficulty explaining what those words mean As a result blessings of understanding and spiritual comfort are less than full This book is designed to help Christians express and appreciate the most important of faith s Holy Words We assume for example that everyone knows what holy or glory or sin mean But when we explore the history of these words we uncover a new depth of understanding Preachers and lay leaders will find this resource helpful in their sermon preparation and Bible study The index lists over 130 frequently used words numbers and phrases which have special significance in biblical and religious writings Some examples are amen benediction clergy devil Eucharist kyrie love Yahweh and numbers such as 1 3 4 7 10 40 and 70 x 7 Also included is an eight
