Jasper,Francesca Polletta,2009-03-09 Emotions are back Once at the center of the study of politics emotions have receded into the shadows during the past three decades with no place in the rationalistic structural and organizational models that dominate academic political analysis With this new collection of essays Jeff Goodwin James M Jasper and Francesca Polletta reverse this trend reincorporating emotions such as anger indignation fear disgust joy and love into research on politics and social protest The tools of cultural analysis are especially useful for probing the role of emotions in politics the editors and contributors to Passionate Politics argue Moral outrage the shame of spoiled collective identities or the joy of imagining a new and better society are not automatic responses to events Rather they are related to moral institutions felt obligations and rights and information about expected effects all of which are culturally and historically variable With its look at the history of emotions in social thought examination of the internal dynamics of protest groups and exploration of the emotional dynamics that arise from interactions and conflicts among political factions and individuals

Passionate Politics will lead the way toward an overdue reconsideration of the role of emotions in social movements and politics generally

When I Wore S's on My Collar Henry Arrowood, 2024-09-12

When I Wore S s On My Collar is a collection of selected stories gleaned from the author s life journals over five decades The stories tell about some of the unforgettable people who impacted his life during his childhood and teen years in Tennessee and the Carolinas and the thirty one years he served as an officer in The Salvation Army in numerous appointments in the southern United States and the Caribbean Some of the stories are funny or at least they caused him to chuckle when the events happened and again when he wrote about them Some have sad elements of course because they deal with loss loneliness and hurt But mostly they are stories of people who blessed humored challenged inspired and encouraged him and others Some were characters some saints some both many of them possessing not only the joy of the Lord but the ability to laugh at circumstances at self at the idiosyncrasies and imperfections in even the most pious seeing humor in both the insignificant and the momentous occurrences of life but doing so without taking for granted or diminishing the sacredness of things spiritual and eternal
