MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I will do everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

Exotic Visions in Marketing Theory and Practice Alf H. Walle, 2001-12-30 An anthropologist folklorist and literary critic besides being a marketing professor Alf H Walle takes a refreshingly interdisciplinary look at the impact of modern social thought upon marketing and social research Tracing key ideas back to their intellectual roots Walle shows how the evolution of social theory and the controversies it has engendered can and should transform the way marketers approach consumers He provides a theoretic underpinning for qualitative consumer research and presents a lucid theoretical and methodological overview for qualitative methods in marketing research that parallels what others such as Shelby Hunt have provided for scientific methods in marketing His book is a provocative thoughtful and probing study of qualitative social theory and its important contributions to marketing and consumer research It is of value to both practitioners and academics Arguing that the social structural methods have been largely ignored Walle rehabilitates this general method and compares it to poststructural alternatives Walle shows that to understand the evolution of modern social theory one must come to grips with the work of three towering pioneers Immanuel Kant Friedrich Hegel and Karl Marx and that researchers must understand and appreciate the contributions and influence of pioneers in order to avoid the myopic vision of our own time Praising Hegel s metaphor of cultures as living organisms and his forging of the concept we now call National Character Walle points to Hegel as the pioneering social structuralist and as the man who as a negative example inspired the poststructuralists to action Walle ends with a well reasoned analysis of poststructural thought in marketing consumer research and suggests that conflict theory an alternative to poststructural methods that evolved from social structural roots is often more appropriate than poststructural analysis in marketing and consumer research Relating both conflict theory and poststructural analysis to the actual needs of marketing consumer researchers Exotic Visions in Marketing Theory and Practice provides unique practical insights for those who teach market research as well as practitioners who pursue it for a living

Marketing Modernisms Kevin J. H. Dettmar,Stephen Myers Watt,2025-10-01 Rarely have genres of literary expression been looked upon or read as commodities within a market system we tend to think of our literature as pure untainted by any interaction with the world of commerce Critical accounts of modernism are frequently theorized across the divide between the project itself and the larger marketplace the world of consumption Marketing Modernisms calls into question this curious separation and examines the material intellectual and ideological practices that comprise the notion of marketing Marketing Modernisms is concerned with Anglo American modernists and their potential readers in both the popular audience and the academy Examining the forms of promotion employed by book publishing houses in the editorial offices of literary magazines and in the minds of modern writers the essays bring to the fore little known connections between writers such as Ezra Pound T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Langston Hughes and the commercial marketplace they engaged The book s provocative themes include the strategies that modernists and their publishers employed to market their work to fashion themselves as artists or celebrities and to bridge the gap between an avant garde elite and the popular reader Other essays explore the difficulties confronted by women African American and gay and lesbian writers in gaining literary acceptance and achieving commercial representation while maintaining the gendered racial and sexual aspects of their lives
