Cooking with Loula Alexandra Stratou, 2016-05-03 Named a Best Cookbook of the Year by Epicurious. In Cooking with Loula, Alexandra Stratou invites readers into her Greek family's kitchen, revealing their annual traditions and bringing their recipes to life with touching remembrances of Kyria Loula. Kyria means Mrs in Greek, the woman who cooked for three generations of Stratou's family and who taught her that the secret ingredient in any beloved dish is the spirit the cook brings with her to the kitchen. Many classic dishes are represented here, such as pastitsio and dolmades as well as inventive, unconventional creations such as a green salad with avocado, apple and Dijon mustard, and a spinach gnocchi in which feta cheese appears alongside Gorgonzola. The nearly 100 recipes are all hearty and unfussy and organized the way real home cooks think, with chapters for simple, healthful weekday dishes, more languorous Sunday meals and traditional holiday fare. With hundreds of mouthwatering photographs and whimsical illustrations, this book is truly a gem.

The Oxford Companion to Food Alan Davidson, 2014-08-21 the best food reference work ever to appear in the English language. Read it and be dazzled. Bee Wilson, New Statesman. First published in 1999, the ground-breaking Oxford Companion to Food was an immediate success and won prizes and accolades around the world. Its blend of serious food history, culinary expertise and entertaining serendipity was and remains unique. Interest in food, cooking and the culture surrounding food has grown enormously in the intervening period, as has the study of food and food history. University departments, international societies and academic journals have sprung up dedicated to exploring the meaning of food in the daily lives of people around the world, alongside an ever-increasing number of articles, books, programmes and websites in the general media devoted to the discussion of food, making the Oxford Companion to Food more relevant than ever. Already a food writing classic, this Companion combines an exhaustive catalogue of foods, be they biscuits named after battles, divas or revolutionaries, body parts from nose to tail, toe to cerebellum, or breads from the steppes of Asia or the well-built ovens of the Mediterranean, with a richly allusive commentary on the culture of food expressed in literature and cookery books or as dishes peculiar to a country or community. While building on the Companion's existing strengths, Tom Jaine has taken the opportunity to update the text and alert readers to new perspectives in food studies There is new coverage of attitudes to food consumption production and perception such as food and genetics food and sociology and obesity New entries include terms such as convenience foods drugs and food Ethiopia leftovers medicine and food pasta and many more There are also new entries on important personalities who are of special significance within the world of food among them Clarence Birdseye Henri Nestl and Louis Pasteur In its new edition the Companion maintains its place as the foremost food reference resource for study and home use

Syrian cookbook Recipes you can make at home, 2024-02-22 Mezze Dips and mezze dishes are the bedrock of Syrian cuisine Mezze is an Arabic word that stems from the verb tamezmez which means to enjoy something so much that you savour it slowly The question isn't so much when do Syrians eat mezze as when do they not If you go to someone's house in Syria there's no way you'll skip the mezze on your way to the main course We're not talking starters here these dishes might start to arrive before the bigger meat or rice ones but they're just as much the focus as what comes later Cooking a single main course is pretty much unheard of A proper meal consists of loads of dishes that you all dive into armed with pieces of freshly baked bread between thumb and forefinger Any vegetable can become part of the mezze With a bit of garlic some parsley or a hit of cumin the humble pious runner bean or cauliflower is transformed into a proper treat Kids don't have to be forced to eat their greens in Syria
