September 2014 Geography Memo:

Geography, Technology and Instruments of Exploration Fraser MacDonald, Charles W.J. Withers, 2016-04-22 Focusing on aspects of the functioning of technology and by looking at instruments and at instrumental performance this book addresses the epistemological questions arising from examining the technological bases to geographical exploration and knowledge claims Questions of geography and exploration and technology are addressed in historical and contemporary context and in different geographical locations and intellectual cultures The collection brings together scholars in the history of geographical exploration historians of science historians of technology and importantly experts with curatorial responsibilities for and museological expertise in major instrument collections Ranging in their focus from studies of astronomical practice to seismography meteorological instruments and rockets from radar to the hand held barometer the chapters of this book examine the ways in which instruments and questions of technology too often overlooked hitherto offer insight into the connections between geography and exploration

Law and Regulation of Mobile Payment Systems Joy Malala, 2017-11-28 Over the last ten years mobile payment systems have revolutionised banking in some countries in Africa In Kenya the introduction of M Pesa a new financial services model has transformed the banking and financial services industry Giving the unbanked majority access to the financial services market it has attracted over 18 million subscribers which is remarkable given that fewer than 4 million people in Kenya have bank accounts This book addresses the legal and regulatory issues arising out of the introduction of M Pesa in Kenya and its drive towards financial inclusion It considers the interaction between regulation and technological innovation with a particular focus on the regulatory tools institutional arrangements and government decisional processes through the examination as a whole of its regulatory capacity This is done with a view to understanding the regulatory capacity of Kenya in addressing the vulnerabilities presented by technological innovation in the financial industry for consumers after financial inclusion It also examines the way that mobile payments have been regulated by criticising the piecemeal approach that the Central Bank of Kenya has taken in addressing the legal and regulatory issues presented by mobile payments The book argues there are significant gaps in the regulatory regime of mobile banking in Kenya

Closing Sysco Lachlan MacKinnon, 2020-02-27 Closing Sysco presents a history of deindustrialization and working class resistance in the Cape Breton steel industry between 1945 and 2001 The Sydney Steel Works is at the heart of this story having existed in tandem with Cape Breton's larger coal operations since the early twentieth century The book explores the multifaceted nature of deindustrialization the internal politics of the steelworkers union the successful efforts to nationalize the mill in 1967 the years in transition under public ownership and the confrontations over health safety and environmental degradation in the 1990s and 2000s Closing Sysco moves beyond the moment of closure to trace the cultural historical and political ramifications of deindustrialization that continue to play out in post industrial Cape Breton Island A significant intervention into the international literature on deindustrialization this study pushes scholarship beyond the bounds of political economy and cultural change to begin tackling issues of bodily health environment and historical memory in post industrial places The experiences of the men and women who were displaced by the decline and closure of Sydney Steel are central to this book Featuring interviews with former steelworkers office employees managers politicians and community activists these one on one conversations reveal both the human cost of industrial closure and the lingering after effects of deindustrialization

Mobility and Migration Choices Martin van der Velde,Ton van Naerssen,2016-03-03 The crossing of national state borders is one of the most discussed issues of contemporary times and it poses many challenges for individual and collective identities This concerns both short distance mobility as well as long distance migration Choosing to move or not across international borders is a complex decision involving both cognitive and emotional processes This book tests the approach that three crucial thresholds need to be crossed before mobility occurs the individual s mindset about migrating the choice of destination and perception of crossing borders to that location and the specific routes and spatial trajectories available to get there Thus both borders and trajectories can act as thresholds to spatial moves The threshold approach with its focus on processes affecting whether when and where to move aims to understand the decision making process in all its dimensions in the hope that this will lead to a better understanding of the ways migrants conceive perceive and undertake their transnational journeys This book examines the three constitutive parts discerned in the cross border mobility decision making process people borders and trajectories and their interrelationships Illustrated by a global range of case studies it demonstrates that the relation between the three is not fixed but flexible and that decision making contains aspects of belonging instability security and volatility affecting their mobility or immobility

The Suicidal State in Somalia Mohamed Haji Ingiriis, 2016-04-01 This book is a critical reposition of the study of military regimes in Africa Documenting and delving deep into the reign and rule of General Mohamed Siad Barre regime in Somalia from 1969 up to 1991 the book puts emphasis on African agencies ostensibly shaped by external beneficiaries and patrons over what went wrong with Africa after the much awaited post colonial period It does so by critically engaging with the wider theoretical and conceptual frameworks in African Studies which more often than not tend to attribute the post colonial African State raptures to colonialism The main thesis of the book is that colonialism left Africa on its own space wherein African leaders could have made a difference By putting discrete perspectives into historical context the book circumnavigates through comparative and comprehensive holistic approach to the Siad Barre regime to reveal how colonialism did not produce less than what criminalisation of the State resulted in Somalia This empirical analysis is crucial to understanding the contemporary conundrum facing the Somali world today The argument is that the contemporary conflicts are not only attributable to but also because of the past plunders of the post colonial leaders trained by the departed colonial authorities Employing nuanced analytic concepts and categories the aim of the book is to refine the past to recapture the present and envision the future Framing new ways of analyzing military regimes in Africa begins with re assessment of how the Siad Barre regime was previously approached Marshalling extensive and extraordinary amount of sources the book unveils the intricacies and contradictions of the dictatorship and its impact on the Somali psyche The book locates the evolution of the regime within the wider context of the Cold War political contestation between the East and the West Unparalleled in depth and analysis this book is the first full length scholarly study of the Siad Barre regime systematically explaining the politics and process of the dictatorial rule The historicity of exploring Somali State trajectory entails employing a Braudelien longue dur e approach Thus three interrelated sets of contexts questions inform the study how Siad

Barre himself came into power how he ruled and maintained his authoritarian reign over the Somalis and who had assisted him from inside and outside the Somali world

Geographies of Mobility Mei-Po Kwan, Tim Schwanen, 2018-10-11 This book seeks to bring together different philosophical theoretical and methodological approaches to the study of human mobility within the discipline of geography With five thematic sections conceptualizing and analyzing mobility inequalities of mobility politics of mobility decentering mobility and qualifying abstraction and 27 substantive chapters by leading researchers in the field it provides a comprehensive overview of the latest thinking about human mobility and related issues The contributors discuss mobility issues as diverse as everyday mobilities of young people migrants and refugees and sex workers the relationships between citizenship and mobility and the potential and pitfalls of big data for understanding mobility This coupled with a broad international focus means that Geographies of Mobility will not only encourage and enrich dialogue on a theme that is of major importance to varied geographic research communities but will also be of great interest to students and researchers across the wider social sciences This book was originally published as a special issue of Annals of the American Association of Geographers

Self-determinable Development of Small Islands Masahide Ishihara, Eiichi Hoshino, Yoko Fujita, 2016-06-14 This book aims to clarify the present situation of the relations between small island countries and territories on the one hand and the great powers mainland areas and mega islands on the other and explores how small island countries and territories preserve and build their identity under globalization This book is divided into five parts The first part presents papers on issues that are related to Okinawa the American military presence the formation of a global human network and the history of and language revitalization in Okinawa The second part includes papers on security in East Asia and the Pacific Region the history of and present issues in international relations within the South and East China Sea areas The third part presents papers on economic issues and social developments on small islands The fourth part deals with ocean policies and marine resource management in the Pacific Region by the United States Australia and Japan Finally the fifth part presents papers on the revitalization of three indigenous languages All the chapters of the book are based on the achievements of the research project Towards New Island Studies The Ryukyus as an academic node between East Asia and Oceania conducted by the International Institute for Okinawan Studies at the University of the Ryukyus This 5 year project was funded by the Japanese Ministry of Education Culture Sports Science and Technology and aimed to contribute academically to the creation of sustainable and self determinable societies in small island regions This work will be extremely useful and informative for readers in small island countries and territories and for researchers who are interested in small island issues to understand the current situation and who wish to consider effectual and feasible solutions

China's Eurasian Dilemmas R. James Ferguson, 2018-08-31 Providing a timely analysis of China's engagement with Eurasia R James Ferguson focuses on the challenges obstructing China's path to becoming a sustainable global power Engagement across Eurasia presents China its leaders and policymakers with intensified contact with regional and national conflicts posing environmental developmental and strategic dilemmas Cool Steven Quartz, Anette Asp, 2015-04-14 This engrossing history merges evolutionary biology and economics to explain our spending habits and show how coolness is at the heart of consumerism Mental Floss We live in a world of conspicuous consumption where the things we buy not only satisfy our needs but also communicate our values identities and aspirations In Cool Steven Quartz and Anette Asp bring together groundbreaking findings in neuroscience economics and evolutionary biology to show how our concepts of cool be it designer jeans smartphones or craft beer help drive the global economy Cool puts forth a provocative theory of consumerism based on our brain's innate status seeking and social calculator The authors highlight the underlying processes that guide our often unconscious decision making They also pull back the curtain on choice architects who design store interiors as well as coolhunters who scour Berlin and Tokyo for the latest trends Quartz and Asp follow the evolution of cool consumption from the mid twentieth century through the emergence of the Internet in the 1990s finally unpacking the social motivations behind today's hip ethical consumption Taking us from Norman Mailer to normcore Cool is surprising at every turn and will forever change the way you think about money status and your next purchase The Drone Memos Jameel Jaffer, 2010-01-12 A trenchant summation and analysis of the legal rationales behind the US drone policy of targeted killing of suspected terrorists including US citizens Publishers Weekly starred review In the long response to 9/11 the US government initiated a deeply controversial policy of targeted killing the extrajudicial execution of suspected terrorists and militants typically via drones A remarkable effort was made to legitimize this practice one that most human rights experts agree is illegal and that the United States has historically condemned In The Drone Memos civil rights lawyer Jameel Jaffer presents and assesses the legal memos and policy documents that enabled the Obama administration to put this program into action In a lucid and provocative introduction Jaffer who led the ACLU legal team that secured the release of many of the documents evaluates the drone memos in light of domestic and international law He connects the documents legal abstractions to the real world violence they allow and makes the case that we are trading core principles of democracy and human rights for the illusion of security A careful study of a secretive counterterrorism infrastructure capable of sustaining endless orderless war this book is profoundly necessary Katrina vanden Heuvel editor and publisher of The Nation The African Metropolis Toyin Falola, Bisola Falola, 2017-08-07 On a planet where urbanization is rapidly expanding nowhere is the growth more pronounced than in cities of the global South and in particular Africa African metropolises are harbingers of the urban challenges that lie ahead as societies grapple with the fractured social economic and political relations forming within these new often mega cities The African Metropolis integrates geographical and historical perspectives to examine how processes of segregation marginalization resilience and resistance are shaping cities across Africa spanning from Nigeria and Ghana to Kenya Ethiopia and South Africa The chapters pay particular attention to the voices and daily realities of those most vulnerable to urban transformations and to questions such as Who governs Who should the city serve Who has a right to the city And how can the built spaces and contentious legacies of colonialism and prior development regimes be inclusively reconstructed In addition to highlighting critical contemporary debates the book furthers our ability to examine the transformations taking place in cities of the global South providing detailed accounts of local complexities while also generating insights that can scale up and across to similar cities around the world This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African Studies urban development and human geography The Legality and Accountability of Autonomous Weapon Systems Afonso Seixas-Nunes,2022-05-19 By adopting a multi disciplinary approach this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the legality of the use of autonomous weapons systems under international law It examines different arguments presented by States roboticists and scholars to demonstrate the challenges such systems will create for the laws of war This study examines how technology of warfare seeks to increase the dissociation of risk and communication between weapons and their human operators Furthermore it explains how algorithms might give rise to errors on the battlefield that cannot be directly attributed to human operators Against this backdrop Dr Seixas Nunes examines three distinct legal frameworks the distinction between the legality of weapons and the laws of targeting different mechanisms of individual accountability and the importance of recovering the category of dolus eventualis for programmers and technicians and finally State responsibility for violations of the laws of war caused by weapons software errors Cities in Crisis Jörg Knieling, Frank Othengrafen,2015-09-16 In recent years European societies and territories have witnessed the spatial impacts of a severe financial and socio economic crisis This book builds on the current debate concerning how cities and urban regions and their citizens deal with the consequences of the recent financial and socio economic crisis Cities in Crisis examines the political and administrative implications of austerity measures applied in southern European cities These include cuts in local public spending and the processes of privatization of local public assets as well as issues related to the re scaling recentralization or decentralization of competencies Attention is paid to the rise of new austerity regimes the question of their legitimacy and their spatial manifestations and in particular to the social consequences of austerity The contributions to this book lay the foundation for recommendations on how to improve and consolidate qualified governance arrangements in order to better address rapid economic and social changes Such recommendations are applicable to cities and urban regions both within and outside of Europe It identifies possible approaches tools and partnerships to tackle the effects of the crisis and to prepare European cities for future challenges
