Look Ma, "Hands" on Poetry Adele Steiner, 2008-05 The workshops in Look Ma Hands on Poetry are designed to help teachers and poets familiarize elementary through high school students with a variety of creative and fun ways to engage their imaginations and write poetry They do so by encouraging teachers and students to explore together the art of poetry i e the art of employing the five senses to capture experience in language The workshops also introduce young writers to a wide range of poets and the poetic techniques and styles that they have incorporated in their writing As a result when students complete a series of workshops

from this book they will know how to write a poem They may enjoy reading more poetry too because they will have a solid understanding of how poetry works Finally there are exciting ideas in Look Ma Hands on Poetry for ways in which young writers can exhibit and perform their poetry The workshops in this book run from 45 60 minutes with the time divided into three segments In the first the teacher reads and discusses poems that are examples of the types of poetry students will be writing In the second the teacher introduces the writing assignment and has students begin writing Finally students who finish poems are invited to share them in the remaining class time Because poetry is the art of capturing experience in language the workshops are structured around sight smell taste touch and sound Each of the workshops in the first five chapters is geared toward exploring one of these senses and the two later chapters contain workshops that require students to use all five to write their poems As a result workshops from each chapter may be used individually or in sequence to create one or two week poetry units that teachers and students can enjoy Workshops in the book include the Sleight of Hand and Animal Mask Workshops wherein students use metaphor simile and personification to create imagery in poems They use music and musical instruments to help them create sound and rhythm in the Native American Chant and Rap Workshops and then they literally play with words to write Bingo and Multiple Voice Poems Young people have opportunities to express their feelings through poetry in the Blues Love Potion and Ode Workshops and finally they use their five senses simultaneously when writing Bubble and Rainbow Poems and when they interpret paintings sculpture and music in Echphrastic Poems The book's final section presents creative ideas for poetry readings books and displays Suggestions for readings include the Poetry Cafe which can incorporate any of the Coffee House Tea Room 1950's Diner and or Greco Roman Garden venues discussed in this section Student poetry books and chapbooks complete with student art and photos are described here too along with plans for poetry rainbows sidewalks mobiles and poetry word collections

Greek and Roman Antiquity in First World War Poetry Lorna Hardwick, Stephen Harrison, Elizabeth Vandiver, 2024-04-22 Rupert Brooke Wilfred Owen Isaac Rosenberg and Charles Sorley all died in the First World War They came from diverse social educational and cultural backgrounds but for all of the writers engagement with Greek and Roman antiquity was decisive in shaping their war poetry The world views and cultural hinterlands of Brooke and Sorley were framed by the Greek and Latin texts they had studied at school whereas for Owen who struggled with Latin classical texts were a part of his aspirational literary imagination Rosenberg's education was limited but he encountered some Greek and Roman literature through translations and through mediations in English literature The various ways in which the poets engaged with classical literature are analysed in the commentaries which are designed to be accessible to classicists and to users from other subject areas The extensive range of connections made by the poets and by subsequent readers is explained in the Introduction to the volume The commentaries illuminate relationships between the poems and attitudes to the war at the time in the immediate post war years and subsequently They also probe how individual poems reveal various facets of the poetry of unease the poetry of survival and
