Wilkins,Meghan Dawe,Ethan Michelson,2023-10-03 An unprecedented account of social stratification within the US legal profession How do race class gender and law school status condition the career trajectories of lawyers And how do professionals then navigate these parameters The Making of Lawyers Careers provides an unprecedented account of the last two decades of the legal profession in the US offering a data backed look at the structure of the profession and the inequalities that early career lawyers face across race gender and class distinctions Starting in 2000 the authors collected over 10 000 survey responses from more than 5 000 lawyers following these lawyers through the first twenty years of their careers They also interviewed more than two hundred lawyers and drew insights from their individual stories contextualizing data with theory and close attention to the features of a market driven legal profession Their findings show that lawyers careers both reflect and reproduce inequalities within society writ large They also reveal how individuals exercise agency despite these constraints Engaging with Actor-Network Theory as a Methodology in Medical Education Research Bethan Mitchell,2021-03-15 This book outlines a methodology based on actor network theory ANT and praxiography and applies this to the field of medical education Drawn from a detailed account of practice in a medical setting this book shows how researchers in education and medical education can learn to work with ANT approaches and attune to different insights in practice The book gives a detailed account of what actor network theory can bring to research through the investigation of social and material networks The philosophical underpinnings of actor network theory are presented as the basis of this emerging methodology through an exploration of learning as disruption practice as human and material assemblages and power as regulated difference in worlds of practice This is a qualitative approach for exploring complexity that does not attempt to represent or reduce but allows for unique insights into practice that might otherwise be overlooked With a robust grounding in practice and professional learning and actor network theory this book will be of great interest for academics scholars and postgraduate students in the field of research methods and medical education

The Crime of All Crimes Nicole Rafter, 2016-03-29 Cambodia Rwanda Armenia Nazi Germany History remembers these places as the sites of unspeakable crimes against humanity and indisputably of genocide Yet throughout the twentieth century the world has seen many instances of violence committed by states against certain groups within their borders from the colonial ethnic cleansing the Germans committed against the Herero tribe in Africa to the Katyn Forest Massacre in which the Soviets shot over 20 000 Poles to anti communist mass murders in 1960s Indonesia Are mass crimes against humanity like these still genocide And how can an understanding of crime and criminals shed new light on how genocide the crime of all crimes transpires In The Crime of All Crimes criminologist Nicole Rafter takes an innovative approach to the study of genocide by comparing eight diverse genocides large scale and small well known and obscure through the lens of criminal behavior Rafter explores different models of genocidal activity reflecting on the popular use of the Holocaust as a model for genocide and ways in which other genocides conform to different patterns For instance Rafter questions the assumption that only ethnic groups are targeted for genocidal cleansing and she also urges that actions such as genocidal rape be considered alongside traditional instances of genocidal violence Further by examining the causes of genocide on different levels Rafter is able to construct profiles of typical victims and perpetrators and discuss means of preventing genocide in addition to delving into the social psychology of genocidal behavior and the ways in which genocides are brought to an end A sweeping and innovative investigation into the most tragic of events in the modern world The Crime of All Crimes will fundamentally change how we think about genocide in the present day Journal of the House of Representatives of the United States United States.
