The Next Twenty-five Years David Lee Featherman, Marvin Krislov, Martin Hall, 2009-12-18 A must read for anyone who cares about the future of higher education in diverse democracies

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt. FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa. More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement. The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left. Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles. The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance. University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution. This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt. Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education. In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt.

South Africa Can Work Frans Rautenbach, 2017-08-18 What will it take to turn South Africa around. In this insightful and provocative book Frans Rautenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address South Africa's unemployment race problems and lack of education. Rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government. Along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments. He also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth. Written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues South Africa Can Work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news.

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all. It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities. It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities. Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education. It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020 It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks Let's Talk About Varsity,2009 Youth and Higher Education in Africa. The Cases of Cameroon, South Africa, Eritrea and Zimbabwe Donald P. Chimanikire,2009 Student activism in Africa at least since the early 1990s has been preoccupied with popular struggles for democracy in both their respective countries and institutions of higher learning The changing socio economic and political conditions in many African countries characterized by the decline in economic growth and the introduction of multi party politics among several other factors have had different impact on students and student political organizations in African universities This book recounts the responses of students to these changes in their attempt to negotiate better living and studying conditions The four case studies contained in the book Cameroon South Africa Zimbabwe and Eritrea clearly reveal the very important aspects of the situation in which African students find themselves in many countries and underscores the need to understand the character and development of higher education on the continent Ministries of Higher Education Vice Chancellors Deans of Students Student Unions and parents will find this book very useful in terms of understanding the tensions that often arise at institutions of higher learning and why solutions seem to be elusive From School to Higher Education? Michael Cosser,Jacques Du Toit,2002 This substantive report is essential reading for those involved in higher education planning and policy making Manage Your Money Like a Grownup Sam Beckbessinger,2020-09-01 You re never too young to start saving Manage Your Money Like a Grownup by bestselling author Sam Beckbessinger aims to get younger readers thinking about the basics of money laying a solid foundation in financial education that most grownups today never had With illustrations jokes and fun facts designed to appeal to even the most easily bored reader this book covers all the basics South African teenagers need to know about money such as The relationship between earning saving and spending How investing works Why compound interest is a superpower Why we pay taxes and The ethics of money Informed by discussions with real teens and their parents this book equips readers with practical tips for earning and investing money at any age as well as providing questions to spark lively dinner table conversations ETDP SETA Scarce & Critical Skills Guide 2010/11 , Creating the New African University ,2023-05-25 Creating the New African University grapples with the existence of African universities particularly in post independent Africa where Higher Education Institutions HEIs are supposed to live up to the expectations of being adaptive in dealing with prevalent complex dynamic contemporary and future challenges facing African societies The book tackles the issue of what ought to be done for African universities to maintain a structure and identity that ensures their relevance in Africa's development through generating and transforming knowledge into actions for the common good. It engages issues within the context of how post-colonial transformative obligations have been managed in light of the prevalent epistemological and pedagogical underpinnings that form the foundations of these universities as they seek to break from the clutches of colonial legacies. This book further highlights an urgent need to do away with silos and embrace a multidisciplinary, interdisciplinary, transdisciplinary and cross-disciplinary dialogical approach towards knowledge generation. Such an approach is essential in efforts aimed at enhancing the sustainable reconfiguration of university structures and functions whilst linking knowledge produced to diverse social, economic and political facets of African societies in ways that promote and sustain competitiveness in a rapidly globalising world beset with technological advancements.

Discrimination in an Unequal World Miguel Angel Centeno, Katherine S. Newman, 2010-09-01. Discrimination in an Unequal World explores the relationship between discrimination and inequality by comparing and examining what effect globalization has had on discrimination. Investigating a broad variety of social relations and practices with an equally broad array of methods, it establishes a base with which to effectively compare the varying forms of discrimination of different societies.

Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr., Vijay Reddy, 2021-04-10. The world is not an equal place. There are high and low income countries and high and low income households. For each group, there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities. This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society. This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens. Comparing the United States and South Africa, this book analyzes each country's developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education. The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies, sociology, psychology, computer science and public policy.

Overcoming Downside Risk Kazuyo Hanai, Rangarirai Gavin Muchetu, Laban Kithinji Kinyua, Yoichi Mine, 2025-05-24 This book classifies and assesses the real and perceived risks associated with both the Covid 19 pandemic and government responses to it in seven African countries DR Congo Kenya Ethiopia South Africa Tanzania Uganda and Zimbabwe based on large scale quantitative and qualitative surveys conducted in 2022 2024 It also elucidates the people's resilience in overcoming the risks within their political social and cultural context Although research on COVID 19 has been conducted in various fields particularly in the medical field the analytical perspective of this book is unique COVID 19 prevention policies are considered to have seriously increased other risks such as hunger other infectious diseases interruption of education and various types of human rights violations including increased conflict violence against civilians and political abuse Therefore this book argues that COVID 19 prevention policies as well as the pandemic itself should be regarded as the downside risk that triggers the deterioration of the other potential risks to vulnerable people Depicted here is the account of how trust in government community and family within the existing political social and cultural environment created pandemic politics as elections during the pandemic instrumentalized and politicized government prevention measures Economic distress threatened people s lives more than COVID 19 during lockdowns and severe behavioral restrictions and the spread of misinformation discouraged people from being vaccinated This book will be useful to policy makers and practitioners in international society who are preparing for the next pandemic based on the lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic
