 the needs of preservice teacher education A Cyclical Model of Literacy Learning Adrienne Minnery,Antony T. Smith,2024
 This book introduces the Cycle of Responsibility COR model the next step in the evolution of the Gradual Release of Responsibility model which has been a conceptual mainstay of literacy education for decades This new model shifts the current linear model to a cyclical process of multifaceted interactions that better reflect the complexities of early literacy and with an emphasis on constructing knowledge together in the context of vibrant learning communities Focused on reading writing and word study in the primary grades the COR is put into motion through five key motivators challenge creativity collaboration choice and independence Vignettes demonstrate how to enact COR in classroom contexts This practical resource is based on the authors shared research and teaching experiences in employing the COR to empower children as literacy learners and teachers as agents of impactful instruction Book Features Presents the Cycle of Responsibility model a new field tested teaching and learning model Moves away from linear task completion to a cyclical collaborative process that reflects the energetic complex and creative world of classrooms Provides a teacher centric approach that emphasizes shared construction of knowledge and the forces that motivate young learners Includes vignettes from the author s first grade classroom to illustrate ideas in practice as well as a chapter on teacher professional learning Marvelous Minilessons for Teaching Nonfiction Writing K-3 Lori Jamison Rog,2015-12-11 Today s young learners know more about their world than ever before This remarkable book shows that even our youngest writers can consider audience and purpose as they use nonfiction writing to document their ideas and share those ideas with others But if students are going to be able to use writing to learn they must have opportunities for learning to write That s what this book is for A wealth of hands on minilessons offer strategies for writing informational persuasive and procedural text Each lesson starts with a learning goal and follows an I do we do you do format Teachers will find a wealth of ideas for guiding young students to write about what they know and care about
