The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee, 1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation's students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS
Writing and Reporting News You Can Use Tammy Trujillo, 2017-12-06 Writing and Reporting News You Can Use instructs students on how to produce news that is informative interesting educational and most importantly compelling It addresses roadblocks to student interest in writing news using illustrative examples and exercises to help them understand how to write news that is interesting and accurate Trujillo's hands on approach is based on real world strategies that deal with audience and market characteristics Students are writing from the very beginning while also getting the ethical and legal grounding necessary to understand the field This textbook is a complete resource for students learning broadcast news including how to get a job after leaving the classroom Broadcast News Writing, Reporting, and Producing Ted White, 2005-02-25 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Radical Reporting Sara I. James, 2025-01-31 If I were giving out an award for book of the year for internal audit professionals I would certainly award it to her outstanding manuscript Radical Reporting Writing Better Audit Risk Compliance and Information Security Reports Richard Chambers Former President and CEO The Institute of Internal Auditors Most people dread writing reports they also dread reading reports What they don't realize is that the techniques that make writing more readable make it more powerful This is especially relevant for professionals in areas such as audit risk compliance and information security This small volume provides the tools and techniques needed to improve reports It does so through addressing crucial concepts all too often overlooked in the familiar rush to perform tasks complete projects and meet deadlines These concepts the role of culture in communication the link between logic and language the importance of organizing thoughts before writing and how to achieve clarity may seem academic or theoretical They're not Unless writers understand their own thoughts actions and objectives they cannot hope to communicate them at all let alone clearly This second edition develops these points with additional material on critical thinking as well as the use of AI in reporting
