Handbook of Place Tim Edensor, Ares Kalandides, Uma Kothari, 2020-05-26 The handbook presents a compendium of the diverse and growing approaches to place from leading authors as well as less widely known scholars providing a comprehensive yet cutting edge overview of theories concepts and creative engagements with place that resonate with contemporary concerns and debates The volume moves away from purely western based conceptions and discussions about place to include perspectives from across the world It includes an introductory chapter which outlines key definitions draws out influential historical and contemporary approaches to the theorisation of place and sketches out the structure of the book explaining the logic of the seven clearly themed sections Each section begins with a short introductory essay that provides identifying key ideas and contextualises the essays that follow The original and distinctive contributions from both new and leading authorities from across the discipline provide a wide rich and comprehensive collection that chimes with current critical thinking in geography The book captures the dynamism and multiplicity of current geographical thinking about place by including both state of the art in depth critical overviews of theoretical approaches to place and new explorations and cases that chart a framework for future research It charts the multiple ways in which place might be conceived situated and practised This unique comprehensive and rich collection will be an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate teaching for experienced academics across a wide range of disciplines and for policymakers and place marketers It will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines such as Geography Sociology and Politics and interdisciplinary fields such as Urban Studies Environmental Studies and Planning Education And The Market Place Terence H. McLaughlin, 2005-06-21 This collection of essays debates the application of market principles to and within the context of education The contributors are all leading figures in their field presenting their ideas in an accessible style to the lay reader Throughout the educational and public policy issues raised by the application of market principles to education are closely examined Poverty and Place Anjanette Wells, Vetta L. Sanders Thompson, Will Ross, Carol Camp Yeakey, Sheri Notaro, 2018-12-31 This book examines ways in which cancer health disparities exist due to class and context inequities even in the most advanced society of the world This volume while articulating health disparities in the St Louis Missouri metropolitan area including East St Louis Illinois seeks to move beyond deficit models to focus on health equity As cancer disparities continue to persist for low income and women of color the promotion and attainment of health equity becomes a matter of paramount importance The volume demonstrates the importance of place and the historical inequity in socio environmental settings that have contributed to marked health disparities Through original research this volume demonstrates that addressing the causes and contributors to women s health disparities is a complex process that requires intervention from a socio ecological framework at micro meso and macro levels of influence The book highlights critical aspects of a practical multidimensional model of community engagement with important influences of the various levels of research policy and practice More pointedly the authors support a new model of community engagement that focuses on individuals in their broader ecological context In so doing they seek to advance the art and science of community engagement and collaboration while disavowing the parachute model of research policy and practice that reinforces and sustains the problems associated with the status quo The book concludes with broader national policy considerations in the face of the erosion of the social safety net for America s citizenry

Creative Representations of Place Alison

Barnes,2018-07-11 Cultural geography and the social sciences have seen a rise in the use of creative methods with which to understand and represent everyday life and place Conversely many artists are producing work that centres on ideas of place and space and utilising empirical research methods that have a resonance with geographers This book contributes to the body of literature emerging from such creative approaches to place Drawing together theory and practice from cultural geography anthropology and graphic design this book proposes an interdisciplinary geo graphic process for interrogating and re presenting everyday life and place A diverse set of research projects highlights participatory and autoethnographic approaches to the research The sites of the projects are varied encompassing the commercial space of grocery shops caf s and restaurants the private domestic space of the home and a Scottish World Heritage site The theoretical context of each project highlights the transferability of the geo graphic process with place being variously framed within discussions of food multi culturalism and belonging home collecting and meaningful possessions and materiality memory and affect Themes in the book will appeal to researchers working in the creative methods field This book will also be essential supplementary reading for postgraduate students studying Cultural Geography Experimental Geographies Visual Anthropology Art and Design

Possibilities of Place in Continental Thought Jussi Palmusaari,Nicolas Schneider,2024-09-05 Exploring the critical potential of place in continental philosophy Possibilities of Place in Continental Thought tests the political and ontological valences of this concept to go beyond the limits of existing geographical and phenomenological approaches Considering place as emergent relational and enveloping or in connection to passage becoming or redemption the contributions to this volume point to the possibilities inherent in philosophical uses of place By rejecting a singular and homogenous theory of place this collection collapses the dichotomies that tend to characterize the discourse on place in favour of a plural conceptualization. It draws attention to the spatial and temporal dynamics within varying theoretical and historical contexts and moves the field forward in significant and vital ways. The Poetry of Place Louisa MacKenzie, 2011-04-23

The sixteenth century in France was marked by religious warfare and shifting political and physical landscapes. Between 1549 and 1584 however the Pl iade poets including Pierre de Ronsard Joachim Du Bellay R my Belleau and Antoine de Ba f produced some of the most abiding and irenic depictions of rural French landscapes ever written. In The Poetry of Place Louisa Mackenzie reveals and analyzes the cultural history of French paysage through her study of lyric poetry and its connections with landscape painting cartography and land use history. In the face of destructive environmental change lyric poets in Renaissance France often wrote about idealized physical spaces reclaiming the altered landscape to counteract the violence and loss of the period and creating in the process what Mackenzie following David Harvey terms spaces of hope. This unique alliance of French Renaissance studies with cultural geography and eco criticism demonstrates that sixteenth century poetry created a powerful sense of place which continues to inform national and regional sentiment today. Selves in Time and Place Alfred Pach III, Debra Skinner, Dorothy Holland, 1998-07-02

Recently anthropology has turned to accounts of persons in history history in persons focusing on how individuals and groups as agents both fashion and are fashioned by social political and cultural discourses and practices. In this approach power agency and history are made explicit as individuals and groups work to constitute themselves in relation to others and within and against sociopolitical and historical contexts. Contributors to this volume extend this emphasis drawing upon their ethnographic research in Nepal to examine closely how selves identities and experience are produced in dialogical relationships through time in a multi ethnic nation state and within a discourse of nationalism. The diversity of peoples recent political transformations and nation building efforts make Nepal an especially rich locale to examine people s struggles to define and position themselves. But the authors move beyond geographical boundaries to more theoretical terrain to problematize the ways in which people recreate or contest certain identities and positions. Various authors explore how people positioned by gender ethnicity and locale use cultural genres to produce aspects of identities and experiences they examine how subjectivities agencies and cultural worlds co develop and are shaped through engagement with cultural forms and they portray the appropriation of multiple voices for self and group formation. As such this collection offers a richly textured and complex accounting of the mutual constitution of selves and society. Galilean Spaces of Identity Joseph Scales, 2024-02-12

We understand the world around us in terms of built spaces. Such spaces are shaped by human activity and in turn affect how people live. Through an analysis of archaeological and textual evidence from the beginnings of Hasmonean influence in Galilee until the outbreak of the First Jewish War against Rome this book explores how Judaism was socially expressed bodily communally and regionally. Within each expression certain aspects of Jewish identity operate these being purity conceptions communal gatherings and Galilee s relationship
