Jain, Peter Sloane, Frank Horwitz, 2015-03-27 The authors of this comparative study of affirmative action compare the employment practices of six countries the U S Canada Great Britain Northern Ireland India Malaysia and South Africa They look at mandatory quota policies legislated versus voluntary policies goals and timetables restrictions and other policies as well as recruitment selection compensation performance appraisal promotion training and career development Their findings will prove useful for training managers of companies with global operations Federal Register, 1997-12-11 Canada's Global Villagers Ruth Compton Brouwer, 2013-09-27 Established in 1961 the same year as the US Peace Corps Canadian University Service Overseas CUSO became the first Canadian NGO to undertake development work from a secular stance and in a context of rapid decolonization Over the next twenty five years nine thousand volunteers many of them women travelled to over forty countries and became Canada's face in the Global South Drawing on more than one hundred interviews Brouwer tells the story of how these young Canadians responded to the challenges of underdevelopment Moving beyond their initial na vet they sought to fit into the host communities that had invited them and to provide social services particularly in education. Returning home they brought unique skills to the Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) and other development organizations and a new level of global consciousness and cultural diversity to Canadian society. At a time when many are concerned about Canada's waning reputation for global humanitarianism, this book reminds us of an earlier, more hopeful time.
