unpublished work in the history of psychology When Carl Jung embarked on an extended self exploration he called his confrontation with the unconscious the heart of it was The Red Book a large illuminated volume he created between 1914 and 1930 Here he developed his principle theories of the archetypes the collective unconscious and the process of individuation that transformed psychotherapy from a practice concerned with treatment of the sick into a means for higher development of the personality While Jung considered The Red Book to be his most important work only a handful of people have ever seen it Now in a complete facsimile and translation it is available to scholars and the general public It is an astonishing example of calligraphy and art on a par with The Book of Kells and the illuminated manuscripts of William Blake This publication of The Red Book is a watershed that will cast new light on the making of modern psychology The Red Book of C.G. Jung Walter Boechat,2018-05-08 This book focuses on some of the main aspects and importance of The Red Book for the understanding of the work of C G Jung It sheds light on the great mysteries of human nature and the new dimension uncovered by Jung and Freud the universe of the unconscious and the possible ways to approach it The Red Book: Reflections on C.G. Jung's Liber Novus Thomas Kirsch,George Hogenson,2017-09-19 In 2009 WW Norton published The Red Book a book written by Jung in 1913 1914 but not previously published Snippets of information about the likely contents of the Red Book had been in circulation for years and there was much debate and eager anticipation of its publication within the Jungian field and the larger reading public In 2010 a conference was held at the San Francisco Jungian Institute which brought together an international group of distinguished scholars in analytical psychology to explore and address critical contextual aspects of The Red Book and to debate its importance for current and future Jungian theory and practice The Red Book Reflections on C G Jung s Liber Novus is based on that conference the individual papers have been thoroughly revised and updated for this book and address some of the important questions and issues that were raised at that conference in response to the presentation of these papers As yet there has been very little published about The Red Book The Red Book Reflections on C G Jung s Liber Novus will contribute to setting the agenda for further research both scholarly and clinical in response to Jung s account of his experiences between 1913 1914 when arguably the future course of his entire project was set in motion This book will be essential reading for any Jungian interested in the importance of The Red Book analytical psychologists trainee analysts those with an interest in the history of ideas and historians Lament of the Dead James Hillman,Sonu Shamdasani,2013-08-19 With Jung s Red Book as their point of departure two leading scholars explore issues relevant to our thinking today In this book of dialogues James Hillman and Sonu Shamdasani reassess psychology history and creativity through the lens of Carl Jung s Red Book Hillman the founder of Archetypal Psychology was one of the most prominent psychologists in America and is widely acknowledged as the most original figure to emerge from Jung s school Shamdasani editor and cotranslator of Jung s Red Book is regarded as the leading Jung historian Hillman and Shamdasani explore a number of the issues in the Red Book such as our relation with the dead the figures of our dreams and chronicles Jung's journey of self discovery from a childhood filled with visions both terrifying and profound through his early professional success to his rediscovery of spirituality in mid life. Special attention is paid to the tumultuous relationships between Jung and Sigmund Freud, the unconventional yet vital role performed by his colleague Toni Wolff and the revelatory visions Jung experienced following a close brush with death. The words of Jung himself and those who shared his work and private life are shared verbatim, connected by Claire Dunne's lively and accessible commentary and by an evocative array of illustrations including photographs of Jung, his associates and the environments in which he lived and worked, as well as art images both ancient and contemporary that reflect Jung's teachings. Jung emerges as a healer whose skills arose from having first attended to the wounds in his own soul. This is an essential work of reference as well as a fascinating and entertaining read for everyone interested in psychology, spirituality and personal development.

Jung's Red Book for Our Time Murray Stein, Thomas Arzt, 2019-05-26. Edited by Murray Stein and Thomas Arzt, the essays in the series Jung's Red Book for Our Time: Searching for Soul under Postmodern Conditions are geared to the recognition that the posthumous publication of The Red Book Liber Novus by C. G. Jung in 2009 was a meaningful gift to our contemporary world. The Red Book can be considered as a contribution to the Golden Chain (aurea catena) of the world's imaginative literature reaching back to the ancient Sumerian Epic of Gilgamesh. As Jung describes this tradition in a letter to Max Rychner, Faust is the most recent pillar in that bridge of the spirit which spans the morass of world history beginning with the Gilgamesh epic, the I Ching, the Upanishads, the Tao te Ching, the fragments of Heraclitus and continuing in the Gospel of St. John, the letters of St. Paul, in Meister Eckhart and in Dante. The Red Book extends the Golden Chain into our era. Each of the 18 essays in this third volume of the series Jung's Red Book for Our Time is unique and all of them converge on the central theme of the relevance of The Red Book for people today in search of soul under postmodern conditions. This is the third volume of a multi-volume series set up on a global and multicultural level and includes essays from the following distinguished Jungian analysts and scholars: Murray Stein and Thomas Arzt, Introduction; Stephen A.
