23. Before establishing a cash account A/R, set up a document for your business called "A/R Invoice" or "A/R Receipt".
24. If you are the first to use cash account A/R, add a new invoice to the cash account from your business only. Do not create a "New Invoice" from the cash account. This is not recommended. This invoice will be the purchase for the type of cash account A/R, as pointing out the group account (page 1).
25. Do not include the P/O or invoice from a P/O department.
26. When you have a purchase for cash account A/R, you can choose to use the cash account from the Cash Sales Group.

- Day and night periods that are longer than the standard 24 hours occur most commonly with the use of artificial light or other light sources. To avoid this, there are two things the producer should do:
  - Turn off the lights at the end of the day.
  - Use red light for night shifts, as the length of the day can vary depending on the use of red light at night.
- The end of the day is the beginning of the next day, so the producer must make the production of the next day's eggs. However, this is not suitable for those species of animals, known, that lay their eggs at night (e.g., a cat).

When you install your T-Value One Connection, improper installation of all four screws (50 combinations for One Connection) will void the warranty. Please, before installing, refer to the correct installation instructions. Failure to maintain proper ventilation may result in a serious problem with the product.

- When a producer's price for the output rises or falls, it must adjust its output accordingly. For example, suppose the price for the output rises. The producer will want to produce more of the output, and this will increase its demand for the inputs. The producer will also want to use more of the inputs, and this will increase its demand for the inputs. The producer will also want to use more of the inputs, and this will increase its demand for the inputs.
