Contemporary Performance and Political Economy Katerina Paramana, 2025-02-18 Contemporary Performance and Political Economy examines haunting concepts relations and artworks that demand our attention Under capitalism political and ethical considerations are subordinated to economic ones and this subordination creates ghost worlds Performance works however can offer insights into alternative politico economic models In this major contribution to the fields of contemporary performance and political economy Katerina Paramana proposes that the investigation of performance works as economies can make the insights performance works offer visible She positions the examination in relation to contemporary critiques of capitalism neo feudalism and their by products and proposes and develops the notion of oikonomia as a means to theorize artworks which through their house oikos rules nomoi propose ethico political challenges to the economies in which they are embedded For this Paramana looks at politically positioned performance works created and presented in Cuba Europe Mexico the UK and the US Her interest is in the politics ethics and effects of these works house rules and the insights they offer to the reconceptualization of political economy Ultimately this book aims to transform our understanding of economy's purpose It contributes to the development of a new ethico political paradigm upon which a reconceptualization of political economy can be based This inspiring study seeks to keep the fire for change alive by demonstrating that political economies much like performances are experiments that can be changed This work will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies theatre visual cultures politics cultural studies dance and visual arts and critical theorists

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Women in Contemporary British Theatre Marissia Fragkou, Rebecca Benzie, 2025-02-06 This handbook provides a detailed exploration of the rich and diverse theatrical work produced by women in the first two decades of 21st century British theatre The book explores key issues and methodologies relevant to women working in the UK's theatre industry including the legacies of feminism and its role in shaping contemporary work by women the politics of visibility and inclusion in theatrical institutions and collaborative strategies in creating original work It closely examines how women in contemporary British theatre tackle urgent social issues such as environmental risk the representation of marginalized identities and mental and physical wellbeing Chapters by both established and early career scholars from a variety of international contexts present new perspectives on significant questions and issues underpinning women's work in 21st century British theatre by engaging with contemporary debates from theatre and performance studies and cultural theory A concluding roundtable with women theatre practitioners addresses key questions pertaining to their work including working conditions the politics of funding and of ageing disability and care With a foreword by the Guardian's chief theatre critic Arifa Akbar and featuring research tools such as introductions to sections a detailed list of sources and an annotated bibliography this is an authoritative study for anyone with a keen research interest in the distinct contribution of women to contemporary British theatre and performance

Interculturalism and Performance Now Charlotte McIvor, Jason King, 2018-12-29 This book is the first edited collection to respond to an undeniable resurgence of critical activity around the controversial theoretical term interculturalism in theatre and performance studies Long one of the field's most vigorously debated concepts intercultural performance has typically referred to the hybrid mixture of performance forms from different cultures typically divided along an East West or North South axis and its related practices frequently charged with appropriation exploitation or ill founded universalism New critical approaches since the late 2000s and early 2010s instead reveal a plethora of localized grassroots diasporic and historical approaches to the theory and practice of intercultural performance which make available novel critical and political possibilities for performance practitioners and scholars This collection consolidates and pushes forward reflection on these recent shifts by offering case studies from Asia Africa Australasia Latin America North America and Western Europe which debate the possibilities and limitations of this theoretical turn towards a new interculturalism

Performance and the Politics of Space Erika Fischer-Lichte, Benjamin Wihstutz, 2013-05-20 From its very beginnings theatre has been both an art and a public space shared by actors and spectators As a result its entity and history is intimately tied to politics a politics of inclusion and exclusion of distributions and placements of spatial appropriation and utopian concepts This collection examines what is at stake when a theatrical space is created and when a performance takes place it asks under what circumstances the topology of theatre becomes political The book approaches this issue from various angles taking theatre as a cultural paradigm for political dimensions of space in its respective historical context Visiting the political dimensions of theatrical space in both theatre history and contemporary performance the volume responds to the so called spatial turn in cultural and historical studies and questions a politics of aesthetics that is discussed in continental philosophy The book visits different levels and linkages between aesthetic theory and geography art and sociology architecture and political theory and geometry and history shedding new light on theatre politics and space thereby transforming this historically intertwined triad into a transdisciplinary theme

Nomadic Theatre Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink, 2019-04-18 Fluid stages morphing theatre spaces ambulant spectators and occasionally disappearing performers these are some of the key ingredients of nomadic theatre They are also theatre's response to life in the 21st century which is increasingly marked by the mobility of people information technologies and services While examining how contemporary theatre exposes and queries this mobile turn in society Liesbeth Groot Nibbelink introduces the concept of nomadic theatre as a vital tool for analyzing how movement and mobility affect and implicate the theatre how this makes way for local operations and lived spaces and how physical movements are stepping stones for theorizing mobility at large This book focuses on ambulatory performances and performative installations asking how they stage movement and in turn mobilize the stage By analyzing the work of leading European artists such as Rimini Protokoll Dries Verhoeven Ontroerend Goed and Signa Nomadic Theatre demonstrates that mobile performances radically rethink the conditions of the stage and alter our understanding of spectatorship Nomadic Theatre instigates connections across disciplinary fields and feeds dramaturgical analysis with insights derived from media theory urban philosophy cartography architecture and game studies It illustrates how theatre as a material form of thought creatively and critically engages with mobile existence both on the stage and in society Asian City Crossings Rossella Ferrari, Ashley

Thorpe, 2021-05-17 Asian City Crossings is the first volume to examine the relationship between the city and performance from an Asian perspective This collection introduces city as method as a new conceptual framework for the investigation of practices of city based performing arts collaboration and city to city performance networks across East and Southeast Asia and beyond The shared and yet divergent histories of the global cities of Hong Kong and Singapore as postcolonial multiethnic multicultural and multilingual sites are taken as points of departure to demonstrate how city as method facilitates a comparative analytical space that foregrounds in betweenness and fluid positionalities It situates inter Asian relationality and inter city referencing as centrally significant dynamics in the exploration of the material and ideological conditions of contemporary performance and performance exchange in Asia This study captures creative dialogue that travels city based pathways along the Hong Kong Singapore route as well as between Hong Kong and Singapore and other cities through scholarly analyses and practitioner reflections drawn from the fields of theatre performance and music This book combines essays by scholars of Asian studies theatre studies ethnomusicology and human geography with reflective accounts by Hong Kong and Singapore based performing arts practitioners to highlight the diversity vibrancy and complexity of creative projects that destabilise notions of identity belonging and nationhood through strategies of collaborative conviviality and transnational mobility across multi sited networks of cities in Asia In doing so this volume fills a considerable gap in global scholarly discourse on performance and the city and on the production and circulation of the performing arts in Asia

Performance and Civic Engagement Ananda Breed, Tim Prentki, 2017-11-17 This book explores civic engagement as a politically active encounter between institutions individuals and art practices that addresses the public sphere on a civic level across physical and virtual spaces Taking a multidisciplinary approach it tracks across the overlapping discourses of politics cultural geography and performance investigating how and why physical and digital spaces can be analysed and utilised to develop new art forms that challenge traditional notions of how performance is political and how politics are performative Across three sections Politicising Communities Applying Digital Agency and Performing Landscapes and Identities the ten chapters and three interviews cover a wide variety of international perspectives all informed by innovative ways of addressing the current crisis of social fragmentation through performance Providing access to many debates on the theory and practice of new media this book is of significance to readers from a broad set of academic disciplines including politics sociology geography and performance studies Performing Ruins Simon Murray,2020-08-17 This book engages with the relationship between ruins dilapidation and abandonment and cultural events performed within such spaces Following the author s fieldwork in the UK Bosnia Herzegovina Poland Germany Greece and Sicily chapters describe investigate and reflect upon live performance events which have taken place in sites of decay and abandonment The book s main focus is upon modern economic ruins and ruins of warfare Each chapter provides several case studies based upon the author s own site visits and interviews with actors directors producers curators writers and other artists The book contextualises these events within the wider framework of Ruin Studies and provides brief summaries of how we might understand the ruin in terms of time politics culture and atmospheres The book is particularly preoccupied with artists reasons and motivations for placing performance events in ruined spaces and how these work dramaturgically Posthuman Pedagogies in Practice Annouchka Bayley,2018-02-13 This book investigates transdisciplinary arts based approaches to developing innovative and pertinent higher education pedagogy Introducing timely critical thinking strategies the author addresses some of the key issues facing educators today in an increasingly complex digital technological and ecological world The author combines emerging ideas in the New Materialism and Posthumanism schools of thought with arts based teaching and learning including Practice as Research for Social Science contexts thus exploring how this approach can be used to productively create new pedagogical strategies Drawing on a rich repertoire of real life examples the volume suggests transferrable routes into practice that are suitable for lecturers researchers and students This practical and innovative volume will appeal to researchers and practitioners interested in Posthuman and New Materialist theories and how these can be applied to the educational landscape in future Performance and the Disney Theme Park Experience Jennifer A. Kokai,Tom Robson,2019-11-27 This book addresses Disney parks using performance theory Few to no scholars have done this to date an enormous oversight given the Disney parks similarities to immersive theatre interpolation of guests and dramaturgical construction of attractions Most scholars and critics deny agency to the tourist in their engagement with the Disney theme park experience The vast body of research and journalism on the Disney Imagineers the designers and storytellers who construct the park experience leads to the misconception that these exceptional artists puppeteer every aspect of the guest s experience Contrary to this assumption Disney park guests find a range of possible reading strategies when they enter the space Certainly Disney presents a primary reading but generations of critical theory have established the variety of reading strategies that interpreters can employ to read against the text This volume of twelve essays re centers the park experience around its protagonist the tourist Performing New Orleans Stuart Andrews,Patrick Duggan,2025-08-20 Performing New Orleans examines the value of arts and culture in managing complex urban challenges offering new perspectives on how artistic and everyday performances can be pivotal modes of practicing resilience Through an exploration of understudied forms of performance in New Orleans Stuart Andrews and Patrick Duggan highlight the centrality of the city's arts ecosystems as a vital aspect of its ability to perform resiliency Performing New Orleans resists conventional definitions of arts practice instead it uses a diverse array of case studies to illustrate what arts practices are what they do and how they can enhance our understanding of people place and resilience The case studies in this volume range from playing in the streets to painting murals from tourist flourishes to the performative effect of infrastructure projects from the design and leadership of arts centers to the unfolding of festivals theater performances art installations and even public health messaging The authors also review critique and rethink resilience theory and the often problematic idea of being resilient Andrews and Duggan bring together ideas from art and architecture cultural geography hazard mitigation resilience theory sustainability theater and water management to explore performances of the city to radically expand our understanding of urban adaptability Performing New Orleans argues that a truly resilient city is one that recognizes arts and culture professionals as crucial critical innovators

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance Daphne Lei, Charlotte McIvor, 2020-04-02 The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance explores ground breaking new directions and critical discourse in the field of intercultural theatre and performance while surveying key debates concerning interculturalism as an aesthetic and ethical series of encounters in theatre and performance from the 1960s onwards The handbook's global coverage challenges understandings of intercultural theatre and performance that continue to prioritise case studies emerging primarily from the West and executed by elite artists By building on a growing field of scholarship on intercultural theatre and performance that examines minoritarian and grassroots work the volume offers an alternative and multi vocal view of what interculturalism might offer as a theoretical keyword to the future of theatre and performance studies while also contributing an energized reassessment of the vociferous debates that have long accompanied its critical and practical usage in a performance context By exploring anew what happens when interculturalism and performance intersect as embodied practice The Methuen Drama Handbook of Interculturalism and Performance offers new perspectives on a seminal theoretical concept still as useful as it is controversial Featuring a series of indispensable research tools including a fully annotated bibliography this is the essential scholarly handbook for anyone working in intercultural theatre and performance and performance studies

Brutal Beauty Jisha Menon, 2021-10-15 Brutal Beauty Aesthetics and Aspiration in Urban India follows a postcolonial city as it transforms into a bustling global metropolis after the liberalization of the Indian economy Taking the once idyllic garden city of Bangalore in southern India as its point of departure the book explores how artists across India and beyond foreground neoliberalism as a structure of feeling permeating aesthetics selfhood and everyday life Jisha Menon conveys the affective life of the city through multiple aesthetic projects that express a range of urban feelings including aspiration panic and obsolescence As developers and policymakers remodel the city through tumultuous construction projects urban beautification privatization and other templated features of world class cities urban citizens are also changing transformed by nostalgia narcissism shame and the spaces where they dwell and work Sketching out scenes of urban aspiration and its dark underbelly Menon delineates the creative and destructive potential of India's lurch into contemporary capitalism uncovering the interconnectedness of local and global power structures as well as art's capacity to absorb and critique liberalization's discontents She argues that neoliberalism isn't just an economic social and political phenomenon neoliberalism is also a profoundly aesthetic project Performing Cities N.
