Caring for You, Caring for Me David H. Haigler, Kathryn B. Mims, Jack A. Nottingham, 1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other's perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better. The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers. The Leader's Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten-hour education and support program for caregivers: informational content layouts for overhead transparencies and suggested group activities. The companion Participant's Manual supports the presentation providing a workbook for class activities, a suggested reading list, and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers. Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET. The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987. Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers. The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers, academicians, public and private services, and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care. Chinese Students in America and Human Rights in China United States Congress, Senate, Committee on the Judiciary, Subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Affairs, 1991

They then discuss aspects of preparing oneself for the mission field, beginning with home front preparations and moving to on-the-field preparations. The final section deals with practical issues and challenges of missionary life. Corporate 500, 1990 Everyday Activism Michael R. Stevenson, Jeanine C.
