Congress. Senate,1978 More Than Shelter Amy L. Howard,2014-05-01 In the popular imagination public housing tenants are considered at best victims of intractable poverty and at worst criminals More Than Shelter makes clear that such limited perspectives do not capture the rich reality of tenants active engagement in shaping public housing into communities By looking closely at three public housing projects in San Francisco Amy L Howard brings to light the dramatic measures tenants have taken to create and sustain and strengthen communities that mattered to them More Than Shelter opens with the tumultuous institutional history of the San Francisco Housing Authority from its inception during the New Deal era through its repeated leadership failures to its attempts to boost its credibility in the 1990s Howard then turns to Valencia Gardens in the Mission District built in 1943 the project became a perpetually contested and embattled space Within that space tenants came together in what Howard calls affective activism activism focused on intentional relationships and community building that served to fortify residents in the face of shared challenges Such activism also fueled cross sector coalition building at Ping Yuen in Chinatown bringing tenants and organizations together to advocate for and improve public housing The account of their experience breaks new ground in highlighting the diversity of public housing in more ways than one The experience of North Beach Place in turn raises questions about the politics of development and redevelopment in this case Howard examines activism across generations first by African Americans seeking to desegregate public housing then by cross racial and cross ethnic tenant groups mobilizing to maintain public housing in the shadow of gentrification Taken together the stories Howard tells challenge assumptions about public housing and its tenants and make way for a broader more productive and inclusive vision of the public housing program in the United States Publication ,1982-10 Federal Register ,2012-06 The Art of Kubernesis (1 Corinthians 12:28) Larry J. Perkins,2019-03-04 Those who chair church boards deserve our prayers and respect Often with little preparation or experience they step up to lead the primary spiritual leadership team within a local congregation When they need help they have to search long and hard to find resources that respond to their specific questions and concerns The Art of Kubernesis 1 Corinthians 12 28 Leading as the Church Board Chairperson fills this gap It takes the best ideas about chairing nonprofit boards being discussed today and carefully evaluates them Those ideas that are compatible with biblical values and the unique nature of a church congregation contribute to this map for church board chairpersons Although its primary frame of reference is congregational polity the principles discussed can help anyone who chairs a faith based nonprofit board Resolution of Minor Disputes United
