Water Resource Management and the Law Erkki J.

Hollo,2017-11-24 Scarcity of water floods and erosion caused by climate change have made the management of water resources a challenge to national and international actors worldwide States have also initiated water projects to improve social welfare often with significant impacts on the environment This book combines close analysis of the legal structures of water rights with consideration of the modes of water management projects to illustrate current water related problems in terms of practical solutions in a global context

Smart Futures, Challenges of Urbanisation, and Social Sustainability

Mohammad Dastbaz,Wim Naudé,Jamileh Manoochehri,2018-04-10 This book tackles the challenges posed by accelerating urbanization and demystifies Social Sustainability the least understood of all the different areas of sustainable development The volume's twin focus on these profoundly intertwined topics creates a nuanced and vitally important resource Large migrations from rural areas to cities without appropriate planning and infrastructure improvements including housing education and health care optimization have created significant challenges across the globe The authors suggest technology rich strategies to meet these challenges by careful application of data on population growth and movement to the planning design and construction of operational infrastructures that can sustainably support our increasingly rapid population growth

Paradise Lost ,2022-06-13 Paradise Lost Race and Racism in Post apartheid South Africa is about the continuing salience of race and persistence of racism in post apartheid South Africa The chapters in the volume illustrate the multiple ways in which race and racism are manifested and propose various strategies to confront racial inequality racism and the power structure that underpins it while exploring how through a renewed commitment to a non racial society apartheid racial categories can be put under erasure at exactly the time they are being reinforced      Higher Education in the Face of a Global Pandemic ,2022-02-28 The book reflects on the extent to which the coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic influenced the education system in Africa notably South Africa The advent of the pandemic has brought a new context to the challenges of access deepening the precarious position of African higher education systems The pandemic underscored that African higher education systems are fragile and not uniformly resilient The book discusses the challenges created or further entrenched by COVID 19 and how the typology of inequality across the differentiated institutions impacted the management of education delivery during COVID 19 Per se lessons learned were documented to inform decision making and practice while drawing conclusions for future usage Even though the shift to emergency remote teaching was not foreseen and thus not coordinated the authors argue that students learning styles perceptions of online learning and digital pedagogy should be considered in the post COVID 19 curricula development processes      Design and Measurement Strategies for Meaningful Learning Gómez Ramos, José Luis,Gómez-Barreto, Isabel María,2022-04-01 Teaching content and measuring content are frequently considered separate entities when designing teaching instruction This can create a disconnect between how students are taught and how well they succeed when it comes time for assessment To heal this rift the theory of meaningful learning is a potential solution for designing effective teaching learning and assessment materials Design and Measurement Strategies for Meaningful Learning considers the best practices challenges and opportunities of instructional design as well as the theory and impact of meaningful learning It provides educators with an essential text instructing them on how to successfully design and measure the content they teach Covering a wide range of topics such as blended learning online interaction and learning assessment this reference work is ideal for teachers instructional designers curriculum developers policymakers administrators academicians researchers practitioners and students      Community Engagement in the Online Space Dennis, Michelle, Halbert, James,2023-02-17 Since the advent of the internet online communities have emerged as a way for users to share their common interests and connect with others with ease As the possibilities of the online world grew and the COVID 19 pandemic raged across the world many organizations recognized the utility in not only providing further services online but also in transitioning operations typically fulfilled in person to an online space As society approaches a reality in which most community practices have moved to online spaces it is essential that community leaders remain knowledgeable on the best practices in cultivating engagement Community Engagement in the Online Space evaluates key issues and practices pertaining to community engagement in remote settings It analyzes various community engagement efforts within remote education online groups and remote work This book further reviews the best practices for community engagement and considerations for the optimization of these practices for effective virtual delivery to support emergency environmental challenges such as pandemic conditions Covering topics such as community belonging global health virtual practicum and social media engagement this premier reference source is an excellent resource for program directors faculty and

through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature web the basic problem of enumerative combinatorics is that of counting the number of elements of a finite set usually are given an infinite class of finite sets  $s_i$  where  $i$  ranges over some index set  $i$  such as the nonnegative integers  $\mathbb{N}$  and we wish to count the number  $f_i$  of elements of each  $s_i$  simultaneously immediate philosophical
