Women, Literature and Development in Africa Anthonia C. Kalu, 2019-12-09 This book is a powerful exploration of the role of women in the evolution of African thinking and narratives on development from the precolonial period right through to the modern day Whilst the book identifies women's oppression and marginalization as significant challenges to contemporary Africa's advancement it also explores how new written narratives draw on traditional African knowledge systems to bring deep rooted and sometimes radical approaches to progress The book asserts that Africans must tell their own stories expressed through the complex meanings and nuances of African languages and often conveyed through oral traditions and storytelling in which women play an important role The book's close examination of language and meaning in the African narrative tradition advances the illumination and elevation of African storytelling as part of a viable and valid knowledge base in its own right rather than as an extension of European paradigms and methods Anthonia C Kalu's new edition of this important book fully revised throughout will also include fresh analysis of the role of digital media education and religion in African narratives At a time when the prominence and participation of African women in development and sociopolitical debates is growing this book's exploration of their lived experiences and narrative contribution will be of interest to students of African literature gender studies development history and sociology

Pedagogical Stylistics Michael Burke, Szilvia Csabi, Lara Week, Judit Zerkowitz, 2012-03-15 This book offers a global exploration of current theory and practice in the teaching of stylistics and the implementation of stylistic techniques in teaching other subjects Pedagogical stylistics is a field that looks at employing stylistic analysis in teaching with the aim of enabling students to better understand literature language and also improving their language acquisition It is also concerned with the best practice in teaching stylistics The book discusses a broad range of interrelated topics including hypertext English as a Foreign Language English as a Second Language poetry creative writing and metaphor Leading experts offer focused empirical studies on specific developments providing in depth examinations of both theoretical and practical teaching methods This interdisciplinary approach covers linguistics and literature from the perspective of current pedagogical methodology moving from general tertiary education to more specific EFL and ESL teaching The role of stylistics in language acquisition is currently underexplored This contemporary collection provides academics and practitioners with the most up to date trends in pedagogical stylistics and delivers analyses of a diverse range of teaching methods

A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D'haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe's concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics

World Literature Decentered Ian Almond, 2021-07-13 What would world literature look like if we stopped referring to the West Starting with the provocative premise that the West is ten percent of the planet World Literature Decentered is the first book to decenter Eurocentric discourses of global literature and global history not just by deconstructing or historicizing them but by actively providing an alternative Looking at a series of themes across three literatures Mexico Turkey and Bengal the book examines hotels melancholy orientalism femicide and the ghost story in a series of literary traditions outside the West The non West the book argues is no fringe group or token minority in need of attention on the contrary it constitutes the overwhelming majority of this world

White Scholars/African American Texts Lisa Long, 2005-09-02 What makes someone an authority What makes one person's knowledge more credible than another's In the ongoing debates over racial authenticity some attest that we can know each other's experiences simply because we are all human while others assume a more skeptical stance insisting that racial differences create unbridgeable gaps in knowledge Bringing new perspectives to these perennial debates the essays in this collection explore the many difficulties created by the fact that white scholars greatly outnumber black scholars in the study and teaching of African American literature Contributors including some of the most prominent theorists in the field as well as younger scholars examine who is speaking what is being spoken and what is not and why framing African American literature in terms of an exclusive black white racial divide is problematic and limiting In highlighting the whiteness of some African Americanists the collection does not imply that the teaching or understanding of black literature by white scholars is definitively impossible Indeed such work is not only possible but imperative Instead the essays aim to open a much needed public conversation about the real and pressing challenges that white scholars face in this type of work as well as the implications of how these challenges are met Critical Pedagogy and Global Literature Masood Ashraf Raja,Hillary Stringer,Zach VandeZande,2013-08-13 In one volume this edited collection provides both a theoretical and praxis driven engagement with teaching world literature focusing on various aspects of critical pedagogy Included are nine praxis driven essays by instructors who have taught world literature courses at the university level Sunset Manshik Ch'ae,2017-06-06 Ch ae Manshik is one of the most accomplished modern Korean writers yet is underrepresented in English translation because of the challenges posed by his distinctive voice and colloquial style Sunset A Ch ae Manshik Reader is the first English language anthology of his works and features a variety of genres novella short fiction anecdotal essay travel writing children s story one act play three act play and roundtable discussion This anthology moves beyond the usual representative works to provide a well rounded selection of writing by one of Korea s most innovative and memorable voices drawing on Ch ae s ten volume Complete Works This edition also provides a comprehensive introduction outlining the limitations of existing approaches to Ch ae It contextualizes the anthology s contents both in terms of the author s career and the rich Korean tradition of intertextuality and intermediality that he reflects from the country s earliest times to the new millennium

Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru,Nicole Simek,Bertrand Westphal,2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Qu bec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the litt rature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority
