Enlightening Romanticism, Romancing the Enlightenment Miriam L. Wallace, 2016-05-06 As eighteenth century scholarship expands its range and disciplinary boundaries such as Enlightenment and Romanticism are challenged novels published during the rich period from 1750 to 1832 have become a contested site of critical overlap In this volume scholars who typically write under the rubric of either the long eighteenth century or Romanticism examine novels often claimed by both scholarly periods This shared enterprise opens new and rich discussions of novels and novelistic concerns by creating dialogue across scholarly boundaries Dominant narratives critical approaches and methodological assumptions differ in important ways but these differences reveal a productive tension Among the issues engaged are the eighteenth century novel s development of emotional interiority including theories of melancholia the troubling heritage of the epistolary novel for the 1790s radical novel tensions between rationality and romantic affect issues of aesthetics and politics and constructions of gender genre and race Rather than positing a simple opposition between an eighteenth century Enlightenment of rationality propriety and progress and a Romantic Period of inspiration heroic individualism and sublime emotionality these essays trace the putatively Romantic in the early 1700s as well as the long legacy of Enlightenment values and ideas well into the nineteenth century The volume concludes with responses from Patricia Meyer Spacks and Stephen C Behrendt who situate the essays and elaborate on the stakes The Cambridge Companion to Modernist Poetry Alex Davis, Lee M.

Jenkins, 2007-07-19 This Companion offers the most comprehensive overview available of modernist poetry its forms its major authors and its contexts The first part explores the historical and cultural contexts and sexual politics of literary modernism and the avant garde The chapters in the second part concentrate on individual authors and movements while the concluding part offers a comprehensive overview of the early reception and subsequent canonisation of modernist poetry As well as insightful readings of canonical poets the Companion features extended discussions of poets whose importance is now being increasingly recognised such as Mina Loy poets of the Harlem Renaissance and postcolonial poets in the Caribbean Africa and India While modernist poets are often thought of as difficult these essays will help students to understand and enjoy their experimental playful and fascinating responses to contemporary social and cultural change and their dialogue with the arts and with each other The Complete Cymbeline Donald Richardson, 2016-08-03 Cymbeline repeats many of Shakespeares plot devices villainous slander homicidal jealousy cross gender disguise a deathlike trance the appearance of Jupiter in a vision and final repentance forgiveness and reunion Mowat xiii all of which result in an improbable story Mowat xv As a romance the play calls to mind the need for Coleridges willing suspension of disbelief Biographia Literaria quoted in Greenblatt 478 Yet it is still Shakespeare
