Nov 2004 Geography Paper 1 Zimsec Question 11:

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Geography Dydia DeLyser, 2010 The process of learning qualitative research has altered dramatically and this Handbook explores the growth change and complexity within the topic and looks back over its history to assess the current state of the art and indicate possible future directions Moving beyond textbook rehearsals of standard issues the book examines key methodological debates and conflicts approaching them in a critical discursive manner

Poverty and Neoliberalism Ray Bush, 2007-04-20 Why do so many people worldwide suffer hunger and poverty when there is enough food and other resources globally to prevent it This book shows how famine and food insecurity are an essential part of modern capitalism Although trade debt relief and development initiatives are important they do not alter the structure of the global economy and poverty continues to be created by processes like privatisation trade liberalisation and market reform Despite the end poverty rhetoric of the World Bank and the G8 these high levels of poverty sustain Western wealth and power Is there any hope for change Using case studies from Egypt and North Africa Nigeria Sudan and elsewhere in sub Saharan Africa Ray Bush illustrates that there is resistance to neoliberal policies and that struggles over land mining and resources can shape real alternatives to existing globalisation

Transfrontier Conservation in Africa Maano Ramutsindela, 2007 Transfrontier conservation is a global concept which encompasses the protection of biodiversity spanning the borders of two or more countries in ways that support local economic development international relations and peace Nowhere is this more relevant but highly debatable than in Africa which is home to a third of the world's terrestrial biodiversity while at the same time hosting its poorest nations This is one of the first books to account for the emergence of transfrontier conservation in Africa against international experiences in bioregional planning The roles of the state and local populations are analysed as well as the ecological socio economic and political implications

British Humanities Index, 2008

The New Enclosures: Critical Perspectives on Corporate Land Deals Ben White, Saturnino Borrás Jr., Ruth Hall, Ian Scoones, Wendy Wolford, 2013-09-13 This collection explores the complex dynamics of corporate land deals from a broad agrarian political economy perspective with a special focus on the implications for property and labour regimes labour processes and structures of accumulation This involves looking at ways in which existing patterns of rural social differentiation in terms of class gender ethnicity and generation are being shaped by changes in land use and property relations as well as by the re organization of production and exchange as rural communities and resources are incorporated into global commodity chains It goes further than the descriptive what and who questions in order to understand the how and why of these patterns It is empirically solid and theoretically sophisticated making it a robust and boundary changing work Contributors come from various scholarly disciplines Covering nearly all regions of the world the collection will be of interest to researchers from various disciplines policymakers and activists This book was originally published as a Special Issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies

Revolution without Revolutionaries Asef

Bayat, 2023-05-25 A study of the Arab Spring and its aftermath alongside the revolutions of the 1970s The revolutionary wave that swept the Middle East in 2011 was marked by spectacular mobilization spreading within and between countries with extraordinary speed Several years on however it has caused limited shifts in structures of power leaving much of the old political and social order intact In this book noted author Asef Bayat whose Life as Politics anticipated the Arab Spring uncovers why this occurred and what made these uprisings so distinct from those that came before Revolution without Revolutionaries is both a history of the Arab Spring and a history of revolution writ broadly Setting the 2011 uprisings side by side with the revolutions of the 1970s particularly the Iranian Revolution Bayat reveals a profound global shift in the nature of protest as acceptance of neoliberal policy has spread radical revolutionary impulses have diminished Protestors call for reform rather than fundamental transformation By tracing the contours and illuminating the meaning of the 2011 uprisings Bayat gives us the book needed to explain and understand our post Arab Spring world Praise for Revolution without Revolutionaries Bayat is in the vanguard of a subtle and original theorization of social movements and social change in the Middle East His attention to the lives of the urban poor his extensive field work in very different countries within the region and his ability to see over the horizon of current paradigms make his work essential reading Juan Cole University of Michigan An astute analyst of the Middle East Asef Bayat is one of the very few researchers equipped to historicize the region's contemporary uprisings In Revolution without Revolutionaries he deftly and sympathetically employs his own observations of Iran immediately before and after the 1979 revolution to reflect on the epochal shifts that have reworked the political regimes economic structures and revolutionary imaginaries across the region today Arang Keshavarzian New York University Bayat provocatively questions the Arab Spring's apparent moderation tracing its softness to decades of neoliberalism that have undermined the national state and discarded old fashioned forms of revolutionary violence This groundbreaking book is not an obituary for the Arab Spring but a hopeful glimpse at its future Olivier Roy author of The Failure of Political Islam

UNFPA State of World Population, 2006 United Nations Population Fund, 2006 This year's report focuses on the lives of migrant women who constitute almost half of all international migrants worldwide some 95 million Every year these women working overseas send hundreds of millions of dollars in remittances back to their homes and communities These funds go to feed and educate children provide health care build homes foster small businesses and generally improve living standards for loved ones left behind For host countries the labour of migrant women is so embedded in the fabric of society that it goes virtually unnoticed But migration whilst offering opportunities for economic advancement and relief from oppression and discrimination has its darker side enslavement of trafficking victims and the exploitation of domestic workers
