Milk and Dairy Products as

Functional Foods Ara Kanekanian,2014-04-09 There continues to be strong interest within the food industry in developing new products which offer functional health benefits to the consumer The premium prices that can be charged make these added value products lucrative for manufacturers and they are also commercially popular Dairy foods are central to this sector they are good delivery systems for functional foods yoghurts milk drinks spreads and are also rich in compounds which can be extracted and used as functional ingredients in other food types Milk and Dairy Products as Functional Foods draws together a wealth of information regarding the functional health benefits of milk and dairy products It examines the physiological role and the claimed health effects of dairy constituents such as proteins bioactive peptides conjugated linoleic acid CLA omega 3 fatty acids vitamin D and calcium These constituents have been shown to be for example anticarcinogenic anti inflammatory antihypertensive hypocholesterolemic immune modulating and antimicrobial This book examines the evidence for these claims and investigates practical approaches for utilising these attributes The book is aimed at dairy scientists and technologists in industry and academia general food scientists and technologists microbiologists and nutritionists together with all those involved in the formulation and production of functional food products Focus On: 100 Most Popular English Male Comedians Wikipedia contributors, Land Grabbing in Africa Fassil Demissie, 2017-10-02 The sign that Africa is on Sale has been appearing with regular frequency in major newspaper accounts across the world indicating that large amounts expanses of Africa s rich farmlands are being sold to transnational investors usually on long term leases at a rate not seen in decades indeed not since the colonial period Transnational and national economic actors from various business sectors oil and auto mining and forestry food and chemical bioenergy etc are eagerly acquiring or declaring their intention to acquire large areas of land on which to build maintain or extend large scale extractive and agro industrial enterprises to help secure their own food and energy needs into the future This book provides a critical appraisal of the growing phenomenon of land grabbing in Africa Far from being a technical issue associated good governance the problem of land grabbing by transnational corporation and states is a serious threat for the food security of millions of Africans and is undoubtedly one of the great challenges of our time for development on the continent The case studies illustrate that African states are also complicit in the massive land grabbing by actively participating in isolated development while excluding the local communities The case studies reveal key features that characterize how the global land grab plays out in specific localities in Africa This book was published as a special issue of African Identities Standards of English in Higher Education Neil Murray, 2016 A frank and critical appraisal of English language proficiency as a key issue in higher education today Pragmatic Markers in Irish English Carolina P. Amador-Moreno, Kevin McCafferty, Elaine Vaughan, 2015-07-15 Pragmatic Markers in Irish English offers 18 studies from the perspective of variational pragmatics by established and younger scholars with an interest in the English of Ireland Taking a broad definition of pragmatic markers PMs as items operating outside the structural limits of the clause that encode speakers intentions and interpersonal meanings this volume includes discussions of traditional PMs like sure that are strongly associated with Irish English recent globally spreading innovations like quotative like and studies of tag questions vocatives and emoticons The data sets used cover most of the existing and developing corpora of Irish English as well as historical legal depositions films advertising and recent fiction interviews recorded conversations and blogs The authors address general issues such as what corpora of Irish English might add to the description of PMs in general the interaction of Irish and Irish English historical and contemporary uses of specific PMs and the usage of recent immigrants to Ireland      NGOs under Pressure in Partial Democracies Chris van der Borgh, 2014-08-13 Over the past decade international human rights organizations and think tanks have expressed a growing concern that the space of civil society organizations around the world is under pressure This book examines the pressures experienced by NGOs in four partial democracies Guatemala Honduras Indonesia and the Philippines      After Ethnic Conflict Cvete Koneska, 2016-04-01 After Ethnic Conflict Policy making in Post conflict Bosnia and Herzegovina and Macedonia investigates how sensitive policy issues can be resolved in the aftermath of war by investigating how political elites interact and make decisions in ethnically divided societies Focussing on the interactions between political elites and attempts to reach agreement across ethnic lines in Bosnia and Macedonia the book examines the impact that institutional factors can have on political actors and the decisions they make Examining domestic factors and external influence in politics Cvete Koneska identifies four key drivers of post conflict cooperation cross cutting identities minority veto powers territorial autonomy and informal practices to explain inter ethnic political accommodation By looking beyond the immediate post conflict landscape created by foreign peace negotiators and aid missions to the internal political process she shows the real reasons political actors cooperate and how competing ethnic tensions are reconciled following ethnic conflict Delving deeper into specific policy areas to compare successful and unsuccessful attempts at ethnic accommodation this book explores the factors behind the different policy outcomes that sustain or undermine peace and ethnic cooperation in ethnically divided societies      Intellectual Property Law and Human Rights Paul Torremans, 2020-06-08 Intellectual Property Law and Human Rights Fourth Edition Edited by Paul L C Torremans Once regarded as a niche topic the nexus of intellectual property and human rights now lies in the eye of the storm that is today's global economy In this expanded new edition of the pre eminent work in this crucial area of legal theory and practice with nine completely new chapters well known authorities in both intellectual property law and human rights law present an in depth analysis and discussion of essential and emerging issues in the convergence of intellectual property law and human rights law The fourth edition is fully updated to address current matters as diverse as artificial intelligence climate change and biotechnological materials all centred on the relations between intellectual property and freedom of expression and the fundamental right to privacy in an intellectual property environment The contributors address such topics as the following and more the status of copyright as a fundamental right fair use transformative use and the US First Amendment intellectual property in the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights freedom to receive and impart information under the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights how to mitigate the risks article 17 of Directive 2019/970 poses to freedom of expression fair dealing defences algorithmic copyright enforcement and free speech developing a right to privacy for corporations expanding the role of morality and public policy in European patent law and ethical and religious concerns over patenting biotechnological inventions As human rights issues continue to arise in an intellectual property context practitioners academics and policymakers in both fields will continue to recognize and use this well established cornerstone work in the debate as a springboard to the future development of the ever more prominent interface of intellectual property and human rights
