LIFE ORIENTATION MARKING GUIDE

INSTRUCTIONS TO MARKERS

1. Please mark according to the provincial examination guideline.
2. Consider all realistic / relevant answers.
3. Do not expand the memorandum with your own answers as this is a common provincial task and should assist in fair and valid assessment across the province.
4. Adhere to the memorandum throughout the marking process as the questions are content specific and answers should reflect the content taught and assessed.
5. Mark accurately and always check all calculations and transfer of marks.
6. At least 10% of all answer scripts should be remarked by the HOD / senior teacher as part of the post-moderation process.
7. Remember we are working with learners' futures, so let us be fair, valid and just in assessing their work.

This marking guide consists of 7 pages.

November 2011 Life Orientation Memorandum Grade 11

Pierre Ostiguy, Francisco
Panizza, Benjamin Moffitt

November 2011 Life Orientation Memorandum Grade 11:

Affirming Black Students' Lives and Literacies Arlette Ingram Willis, Gwendolyn Thompson McMillon, Patriann Smith, 2022 Drawing on the authors experiences as Black parents researchers teachers and teacher educators this timely book presents a multipronged approach to affirming Black lives and literacies The authors believe change is needed not within Black children but in the way they are perceived and educated particularly in reading writing and critical thinking across grade levels To inform literacy teachers and school leaders the authors provide a conceptual framework for reimagining literacy instruction based on Black philosophical and theoretical foundations historical background literacy research and authentic experiences of Black students This important book includes counternarratives about the lives of Black learners research conducted by Black scholars among Black students examples of approaches to literacy with Black children that are making a difference conversations among literacy researchers that move beyond academia and a model for engaging all students in literacy Affirming Black Students Lives and Literacies advocates for adopting a standard of care that will improve and support literacy achievement among today s Black students by rejecting deficit presumptions and embracing the fullness of these students strengths Book Features A counternarrative of Black literacy history lives and learners Narrative examples of Black literacy scholarship by Black scholars who embrace their faith walk as an integral part of their holistic approach to literacy teaching and learning Discussion questions to spur conversations among school administrators parents caregivers politicians reading researchers teacher educators and classroom teachers An array of extant Black scholarship that should inform literacy praxis and research A conceptual framework CARE that is applicable for all learners with a focus on Black literacy learners

Teaching Music in American Society Steven N. Kelly, 2015-08-27 Successful professional music teachers must not only be knowledgeable in conducting and performing but also be socially and culturally aware of students issues and events that affect their classrooms This book provides comprehensive overview of social and cultural themes directly related to music education teacher training and successful teacher characteristics New topics in the second edition include the impact of Race to the Top social justice bullying alternative schools the influence of Common Core Standards and the effects of teacher and school assessments All topics and material are research based to provide a foundation and current perspective on each issue

Populism in Global Perspective Pierre Ostiguy, Francisco Panizza, Benjamin Moffitt, 2020-12-30 Pathbreaking theoretically and innovative in treatment Populism in Global Perspective is a seminal addition to the literature on arguably the most controversial and fervently discussed topic in political science today The book brings together established and rising stars in the field of populism studies in an integrated set of theoretical and empirical studies centered on a discursive performative notion of populism Contributors argue that populist identification is relational and sociocultural and demonstrate the importance of studying populism phenomenologically together with anti populism The truly global series of case studies of populism in the US Western and Southern Europe Latin

America South Africa the Philippines and Turkey achieves a deliberate balance of left and right instances of populism including within regions and of populism in government and opposition Written in a style approachable to students and specialists alike the volume provides a substantial foundation for current knowledge on the topic Populism in Global Perspective is a must read for comparativists political theorists sociologists area studies specialists and all educated readers interested in populism worldwide
