,2001 Reference and Instructional Services for Information Literacy Skills in School Libraries Scott Lanning, 2014-05-28 Students need to be able to distinguish good information from bad This book gives you the tools to transmit those essential skills to your students Being an effective school librarian requires acting as an active instructional partner an advocate for information literacy and information resources and a reference librarian Now in its third edition this concise book provides you with a solid foundation in providing reference services to students as well as teachers It details all aspects of providing essential reference services in the context of the AASL Standards the Common Core State Standards and the evolving role of today s school librarian Author Scott Lanning emphasizes service and instruction while addressing topics such as inquiry critical thinking building core reference skills electronic and Web resources leadership skills and virtual reference services The book begins with chapters that discuss information and the information seeking process The following sections cover the provision of reference services methods for teaching information literacy the use of electronic resources in general and the creation of library resources that support reference and instruction The text concludes with an assessment of the value of reference and instruction services to the school and beyond School Library Reference Services in the 90s Carol Truett, 1994 Here is a succinct update on school library reference services for the busy practitioner or student Exploring the state and state of the art of school library reference services in the 1990s this book provides an overview of current information skills teaching models the impact of new technologies on the teaching of reference and the student search process and assessment and evaluation models for gauging the success of school reference services School Library Reference Services in the 90s is an informative guide for school media coordinators and specialists library science graduate students and professors and researchers in the field to help them understand what students must learn and what teachers must teach to keep everyone up to date in the fast changing world of reference School Library Reference Services in the 90s is divided into three sections that cover reference research teaching models technology and evaluation Topics in the first section include an examination of the current state of affairs in reference teaching a look at various models for integrating library research and reference skills into the curricula and discussions of the effects of these new models on the school librarian s role Section two addresses the profound effect new technologies such as CD ROM multimedia CD I and CD TV are having on both the teaching of reference and information skills and on the entire research process from initiation to production of the final student report The last section presents three models for assessing the effectiveness of school reference services and skills instruction School library reference services and particularly library instruction are changing dramatically in the 1990s as a result of the information age School Library Reference Services in the 90s helps professionals
