

Rhetorical Analysis Essay Outline

I. Introduction: Rhetorical Précis:

- A. Name of author, (appositive phrase about the author to establish credibility & authority) genre, and title of work; a rhetorically accurate verb (such as "assert," "argue," "suggest," "imply," "claim," etc.); and a THAT clause containing the major assertion (thesis statement) of the work.
- B. An explanation of how the author develops and/or supports the thesis, usually in chronological order.
- C. A statement of the author's apparent purpose followed by and "in order" phrase.
- D. A description of the intended audience and the relationship the author establishes with the audience

II. Body Paragraph #1:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "(author's last name) begins with/by...(make your claim about what strategy you see working address the purpose/prompt)"
- B. Specific example to support idea: provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the beginning section, supporting with text. (Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.)
- C. Discussion of how examples supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/the purpose.

III. Body Paragraph #2:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "After... the author moves to..." "Building off the strategy he/she used to begin, he/she ..." Connect an idea from the last sentence of the previous paragraph to the first sentence of this paragraph showing how the strategies build upon each other.
- B. Provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the middle section, supporting with text. Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.
- C. Discussion of how example supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/ the purpose.

IV. Last Body Paragraph:

- A. Topic sentence/transition: "to close the essay/speech, (author)..." "Concluding the argument he/she ..." Connect an idea from the last sentence of the previous paragraph to the first sentence of this paragraph showing how the strategies build upon each other.
- B. Provide EXPLICIT textual support woven into your comments to support your claim. Thoroughly discuss all strategies used in the middle section, supporting with text. Should be at least two or more complex, stylistic sentences.
- C. Discussion of how example supports idea: Connect the strategy back to your main claim/thesis/ the purpose.

V. Conclusion

- A. Restatement of thesis that digs deeper into the overall intended meaning of the text than the one in the introductory paragraph (Try not to begin your conclusion paragraph with "In conclusion").
- B. Reflection on examples and main ideas in body paragraphs, significance of these strategies, AND how they are linked to your thesis.
- C. State if these were effective in conveying the claim/thesis/purpose.
- D. Closing thought - closing out the main purpose of the text being analyzed.

product The Rhetorical Analysis of Scripture Stanley E. Porter, Thomas H. Olbricht, 1997-09-01 This is the third in a series of conference papers on rhetorical criticism Held in July 1995 in London the conference included participants from the United Kingdom the United States Canada Germany Italy Switzerland and the Republic of South Africa Part I is concerned with the past present and future of rhetorical analysis Parts II III and IV are concerned with rhetorical analysis of scriptural texts and Part V provides a conclusion reflecting on a number of questions raised in Part I Most of the participants would characterize themselves as advocates of rhetorical criticism but there were others less convinced that rhetorical criticism is developing as it ought Practical Argument Laurie G. Kirsznner, Stephen R. Mandell, 2011-05-16 From the best selling authors of the most successful reader in America comes Practical Argument No one writes for the introductory composition student like Kirsznner and Mandell and Practical Argument simplifies the study of argument A straightforward full color accessible introduction to argumentative writing it employs an exercise driven thematically focused step by step approach to get to the heart of what students need to understand argument In clear concise no nonsense language Practical Argument focuses on basic principles of classical argument and introduces alternative methods of argumentation Practical Argument forgoes the technical terminology that confuses students and instead explains concepts in understandable everyday language illustrating them with examples that are immediately relevant to students lives Qualitative Research Methods in Education and Educational Technology Jerry W. Willis, 2008-10-01 Qualitative Research Methods in Education and Educational Technology was written for students and scholars interested in exploring the many qualitative methods developed over the last 50 years in the social sciences The book does not stop however at the boundaries of the social sciences Social scientists now consume and use research methods from many fields The rich resources of research methods and theories from both the humanities and philosophy are also covered in this book It explains why postpositivist quantitative research should not be the only game in town and provides solid theoretical foundations beginning with the positions of Plato and Aristotle for broadening our horizons about what warrants our attention Using Aristotle s concept of phronesis the author shows why methods such as narrative research and storytelling hermeneutic inquiry literary theory philosophical inquiry and much more have important applications in education and educational technology On those foundations the author also builds a framework for doing many types of research from participatory action research to content analysis to postmodern case studies to empowerment research and philosophical inquiry He accomplishes this through a combination of original text summaries of exemplary research in education and educational technology and suggested readings that are annotated and introduced at the end of each chapter Many of these readings are available online and they extend the discussion of research methods or serve as exemplars of a particular type of educational technology research There are open ended and conceptual questions for each reading and developing your own answers to them is one way you can extend your depth of understanding about qualitative research methods in education and educational technology A Brief Guide to
