Rhodes Student Handbook 2016:

Handbook on Academic Freedom Richard Watermeyer, Rille Raaper, Mark Olssen, 2022-11-15 Identifying academic freedom as a major casualty of rapid and extensive reforms to the governance and practices of academic institutions worldwide this timely Handbook considers the meaning of academic freedom the threats it faces the consequences of its loss and its relation to rights of critical expression public accountability and the democratic health of open societies The Cambridge Handbook of Community Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2024-04-25 Power and empowerment are critical topics for social change This handbook maps out ways that people can collectively engage with influence and change systems that affect their lives particularly the systems that maintain inequality and oppression It includes in depth examinations of a variety of approaches to building and exercising community power in local organizations institutions and settings Each chapter examines a particular approach critically engaging with contemporary research on how and when collective action can be most effective at producing change within communities and societal systems By examining a range of approaches in diverse contexts this book provides new insights for scholars practitioners and engaged resident leaders aiming to be more precise strategic and innovative in their efforts to build and sustain community power It is the ideal resource for those working with community groups to build more just and equitable systems Handbook of Research on Fostering

Student Engagement With Instructional Technology in Higher Education Alqurashi, Emtinan, 2019-10-11 Student engagement relies on the students and their willingness to participate in the learning process and can be enhanced through the application of various technologies within learning environments However strategies for implementing these technologies need research and development to be implemented effectively The Handbook of Research on Fostering Student Engagement With Instructional Technology in Higher Education is a comprehensive academic publication that focuses on the engagement of learners with academics in higher education and especially how this engagement can be fostered with the integration of new technologies Featuring an array of topics such as gamification digital literacy and social networking this book is ideal for instructors educators administrators curriculum developers instructional designers IT consultants educational software developers researchers academicians and students #RhodesMustFall B. Nyamnjoh, 2016-04-18 This book on rights entitlements and citizenship in post apartheid South Africa shows how the playing field has not been as levelled as presumed by some and how racism and its benefits persist Through everyday interactions and experiences of university students and professors it explores the question of race in a context still plagued by remnants of apartheid inequality and perceptions of inferiority and inadequacy among the majority black population In education black voices and concerns go largely unheard as circles of privilege are continually regenerated and added onto a layered and deep history of cultivation of black pain These issues are examined against the backdrop of organised student protests sweeping through the countrys universities with a renewed clamour for transformation around a rallying cry of Black Lives Matter The nuanced complexity of this insightful analysis of the Rhodes Must Fall movement elicits compelling questions about the attractions and dangers of exclusionary articulations of belonging What could a grand imperialist like the stripling Uitlander or foreigner of yesteryear Sir Cecil John Rhodes possibly have in common with the present day nimble footed makwerekwere from Africa north of the Limpopo The answer Nyamnjoh suggests is to be found in how human mobility relentlessly tests the boundaries of citizenship ,

Places of Privilege ,2018-07-19 Places of Privilege examines dynamics of privilege and power in the construction of place in a period of the rapid social transformation of places borders and boundaries Drawing on inter disciplinary perspectives the book examines place as a site for the making and re making of privilege while considering new meanings of community and examining spaces for cultural identity and resistance Chapters point to a range of conceptual resources that can be utilised to produce critical analyses of place making As the authors point out power and privilege shape place but these dynamics are in turn shaped by the specific place based histories and social dynamics within which they are located Contributors are Lutfiye Ali Alison M Baker Paola Bilbrough Tony Birch Jora Broerse Sally Clark Josephine Cornell Yon Hsu Lou Iaquinto Karen Jackson Shose Kessi Rebecca Lyons Chris McConville Nicole Oke Amy Quayle Alexandra Ramirez Kopano Ratele Christopher C Sonn and Ram n Spaaij

Challenging the Apartheids of Knowledge in Higher Education through Social Innovation Joana Bezerra,Craig Paterson,Sharli Paphitis,2021-05-12 In order to understand the relationship between social innovation and the reimagining of the knowledge economy necessary to reorient higher education most fully towards the public good we must draw from the experiences of those working on the front lines of change This collection represents diverse voices and disciplines drawing together the critical reflections of academics students and community partners from across South Africa The book seeks to bring together theoretical and practical lessons about how research methods can be used in socially innovative ways to challenge the apartheids of knowledge in higher education and to promote the democratization of the knowledge economy

Contemplative Pedagogies for Transformative Teaching, Learning, and Being Jing Lin,Tom E. Culham,Sachi Edwards,2019-11-01 In our current systems of education there is a trend toward compartmentalizing knowledge standardizing assessments of learning and focusing primarily on quantifiable and positivist forms of inquiry Contemplative inquiry on the other hand takes us on a transformative pathway toward wisdom morality integrity equanimity and joy Zajonc 2009 These holistic learning practices are needed as a counterbalance to the over emphasis on positivism that we see today In addition to learning quantifiable information we also need to learn to be calmer wiser kinder and happier This book aims to find and share various pathways leading to these ends This book will describe educational endeavors in various settings that use contemplative pedagogies to enable students to achieve deep learning peace tranquility equanimity and wisdom to gain new understanding about self and life and to grow holistically Embodiment is a central concept in this book We hope to highlight strategies for exploring internal wisdoms through engaging ourselves beyond simply the rational mind Contemplative pedagogies such as meditation yoga tai chi dance arts poetry reflective writing and movements can help students embody what they learn by integrating their body heart mind and spirit

Violent Ignorance Hannah Jones,2021-01-28 An elected politician is assassinated in the street by a terrorist associated with extreme political groups and the national response is to encourage picnics Thousands of people are held in prison like conditions without judicial oversight or any time limit on their sentence An attempt to re assert national sovereignty and borders leads thousands of citizens to register for dual citizenship with other countries some overcoming family associations with genocide in their second country of nationality to do so This is life in the UK today How then are things still continuing as normal How can we confront these phenomena and why do we so often refuse to What are the practices that help us to accommodate the unconscionable How might we contend with the horrors that meet us each day rather than becoming desensitized to them Violent Ignorance sets out to examine these questions through an understanding of how the past persists in the present how trauma is silenced or reappears and how we might reimagine identity and connection in ways that counter rather than ignore historic violence In particular Hannah Jones shows how border controls and enforcement and its corollary racism and violence have shifted over time Drawing on thinkers from John Berger to Ben Okri from Audre Lorde to Susan Sontag the book questions what it means to belong and discusses how hierarchies of belonging are revealed by what we can see and what we can ignore Decolonizing University Teaching and Learning D. Tran,2021-05-20 Decolonizing University Teaching and Learning considers apprehensions around decolonizing and offers a summary of key arguments within critical discussion around its meaning and value through engagement with a growing body of literature The contextually based and complex discussions concerning decolonization means one cannot be guided through the process in a particular way Therefore the text is not intended to be read as a handbook for decolonizing teaching and learning nor is it an anthropologically oriented text Drawing on Critical Race Theory the book highlights the benefits of decolonizing teaching and learning for all students and staff This book offers up the TRAAC model as an entry point for challenging conversations By bringing together questions raised within existing scholarly discussions the TRAAC model provides prompts to instigate deeper reflections around decolonizing by way of supporting colleagues to start a productive dialogue Through these critically reflective and reflexive conversations action oriented discussions can simultaneously take place The value of this book lies in the contributions from authors based across a number of universities and disciplines Reflecting on personal experiences staff and student relationships subject specific challenges and wider issues within HE the contributions are grounded in the employment of the TRAAC model as a mode of entry into discussing particular issues around decolonizing teaching and learning Language Education in the School Curriculum Ken Cruickshank,Stephen Black,Honglin Chen,Linda Tsung,Jan Wright,2020-05-14 There is widespread concern in all English speaking countries at the rapid decline in study of languages The promise of languages for all in the UK and North America in the 1970s marked a shift from languages as lite subjects for the privileged few but this promise has not been fulfilled This book explores the reasons for and solutions to this decline More importantly it looks at how these trends have been reversed in successful school programs and the implications of this for language education policy makers The study draws on an analysis of data from 600 primary secondary and community languages schools over six years and from detailed case studies in a representative sample of 45 successful schools The book proposes a range of strategies to address the decline from engaging classroom learning assessment outcomes and embedding languages as central in school curriculum on the one level to a mix of incentives and mandation for language study especially at upper secondary school level The authors explore the impact of learning languages on the thinking educational experiences and outcomes of young people across a range of ethnic backgrounds and socioeconomic statuses They show the importance of having equal access to languages study in a world where young people will have increasingly more diverse working lives and argue that the gap in languages between policy and uptake is really a gap in the thinking of policy makers and government
