Resources in Education, 2000-10 Arts of Engagement Dylan Robinson, Keavy Martin, 2016-07-15 Arts of Engagement focuses on the role that music film visual art and Indigenous cultural practices play in and beyond Canada's Truth and Reconciliation Commission on Indian Residential Schools Contributors here examine the impact of aesthetic and sensory experience in residential school history at TRC national and community events and in artwork and exhibitions not affiliated with the TRC Using the framework of aesthetic action the essays expand the frame of aesthetics to include visual aural and kinetic sensory experience and question the ways in which key components of reconciliation such as apology and witnessing have social and political effects for residential school survivors intergenerational survivors and settler publics This volume makes an important contribution to the discourse on reconciliation in Canada by examining how aesthetic and sensory interventions offer alternative forms of political action and healing These forms of aesthetic action encompass both sensory appeals to empathize and invitations to join together in alliance and new relationships as well as refusals to follow the normative scripts of reconciliation Such refusals are important in their assertion of new terms for conciliation terms that resist the imperatives of reconciliation as a form of resolution This collection charts new ground by detailing the aesthetic grammars of reconciliation and conciliation The authors document the efficacies of the TRC for the various Indigenous and settler publics it has addressed and consider the future aesthetic actions that must be taken in order to move beyond what many have identified as the TRC's political limitations Prehistoric Art of the Alaskan Eskimo (with 24 Plates) Henry Bascom Collins, 1929 The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp, 1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level Primitive Technology II David Wescott, 2001-08-20 The Stone Age is the common denominator of mankind and through experimental archeology the relearning and replication of ancient skills we take a step of discovery and understanding into this rich past In this collection drawn from the pages of the Bulletin of Primitive Technology learn to create tools to fabricate more complex technologies master the arts of the bow and arrow build a shelter or fashion clothing from fibers or buckskin Primitive Technology II Ancestral Skills provides the guide to rediscovery of the skills and crafts that bind us all into this great human family

Indigenous Children's Survivance in Public Schools Leilani Sabzalian, 2019-02-26 Indigenous Children's Survivance in Public Schools examines the cultural social and political terrain of Indigenous education by providing accounts of Indigenous students and educators creatively navigating the colonial dynamics within public schools Through a series of survivance stories the book surveys a range of educational issues including implementation of Native themed curriculum teachers attempts to support Native students in their classrooms and efforts to claim physical and cultural space in a school district among others As a collective these stories highlight the ways that colonization continues to shape Native students experiences in schools By documenting the nuanced intelligence courage artfulness and survivance of Native students families and educators the book counters deficit framings of Indigenous students The goal is also to develop educators anticolonial literacy so that teachers can counter colonialism and better support Indigenous students in public schools

The Future of Luxury Brands Annamma Joy,2022-02-07 The concepts of artification and sustainability are now both at the heart of luxury brand marketing strategies artification as an ongoing process of transformation in the world of art and sustainability as an indispensable response to the issues of our times The Future of Luxury Brands examines three interrelated luxury marketing segments the art world fashion and fine wines including hospitality services through the dual lenses of sustainability and artification From safeguarding human and natural resources to upholding labor rights and protecting the environment sustainability has taken center stage in consumer consciousness embodying both moral authority and sound business practices At the same time artification the process by which non art is reconceived as art applies the cachet of art to business affording commercial products the sacred status accorded to works of art When commercial products enter the realm of aesthetic creation artification and consumer engagement inevitably increases This pioneering book examining artification and sustainability as strategic pillars of marketing strategies in the luxury industry will be essential reading for practitioners working in luxury product companies as also students of luxury brand marketing

Paddling to Where I Stand Martine J. Reid,Daisy Sewid-Smith,2007-11-01 The first ever biography written about a woman of the Northwest Coast s Kwakwakawakw people Paddling to Where I Stand presents the memoirs of Agnes Alfred c 1890 1992 a non literate noble Qwiqwasutinuxw woman of the Kwakwakawakw Nation and one of the last great storytellers among her peers in the classic oral tradition Agnes Alfred documents through myths historical accounts and personal reminiscences the foundations and the enduring pulse of her living culture But this is more than another anthropological interpretation it is the first hand account of the greatest period of change the Kwakwaka wakw people experienced since first contact with Europeans and Alfred s memoirs flow from her urgent desire to pass on her knowledge to younger generations Blood and Land J. C. H. King,2016-08-25 Blood and Land is a dazzling panoramic account of the history and achievements of Native North Americans and why they matter today It is about why no understanding of the wider world is possible without comprehending the original inhabitants of the United States and Canada Native Americans First Nations and Arctic peoples This highly personal book based on years of travel and first hand research in North America introduces a deeply complex story of myriad identities and determined ethnicities from the desert Southwest to the high Arctic from first contact between Europeans and Native Americans to the challenges of Native leadership today Instead of writing a chronological history King confronts the reader with the paradoxes diversity and successes of Native North Americans Their astonishing ingenuity and supple intelligence enabled after centuries of suffering both violence and dispossession a striking level of recovery optimism and autonomy in the twenty first century Beautifully illustrated and filled with arresting and surprising stories Blood and Land looks well beyond the feathers and failure narratives beloved by historians to show us Native North America as it was

Tales of Ghosts Ronald W. Hawker, 2007-10-01 The years between 1922 and 1961 often referred to as the Dark Ages of Northwest Coast art have largely been ignored by art historians and dismissed as a period of artistic decline Tales of Ghosts compellingly reclaims this era arguing that it was instead a critical period during which the art played an important role in public discourses on the status of First Nations people in Canadian society Hawker's insightful examination focuses on the complex functions that Northwest Coast objects such as the ubiquitous totem pole played during the period He demonstrates how these objects asserted the integrity and meaningfulness of First Nations identities while simultaneously resisting the intent and effects of assimilation enforced by the Canadian government's denial of land claims its ban of the potlatch and its support of assimilationist education Those with an interest in First Nations and Canadian history and art history anthropology museology and post colonial studies will be delighted by the publication of this major contribution to their fields Subject Index to Children's Magazines ,1977
