

Research Note

This page provides information about writing a Research Note for Wellcome Open Research, including the key sections that must be present in the article and details of figure and table formats. Please also refer to Wellcome Open Research's editorial policies.

Criteria

Wellcome Open Research's scope covers all original research in any of the areas funded by Wellcome, including biomedical sciences, population health, and applied research, as well as humanities and social science. All new findings supported by original source data are welcome regardless of the perceived interest and the extent of novelty (including null/negative and confirmatory results). Research Notes are small, often preliminary studies, descriptions of unexpected and perhaps unexplained observations or lab protocols that can be described in a short report with a few illustrations (figures/tables), or even a single figure.

Language

All articles must be written in good English. Please note that the article will not undergo editing by Wellcome Open Research before publication and a manuscript may be rejected during the initial checking process if it is deemed unintelligible and hence not suitable for peer review.

For authors whose first language is not English, it may be beneficial to have the manuscript read by a native English speaker with scientific expertise. There are many commercial editing services that can provide this service at a cost to the authors.

Main Sections

1. Authors

Please list all authors that played a significant role in the research involved in the article. Please:

- provide full affiliation information (full institutional address and ZIP code, and e-mail address) for all authors, and
- indicate who is/are the corresponding author(s).

Criteria for authorship are based on the Uniform Requirements for Manuscripts Submitted to Biomedical Journals. Being an author implies full responsibility for the article's content and
